then, and not till then, can they know, I think that many more ought to come to their help, at half past 5 we left the asylum, to visit a mission Station which is across the river and is called the Hoffman Station, This Station is in the charge of an native African who was educated at Cavalla, the planing of the House is his own work, and it is worth of many who call themselves his superiors, his grounds are laid out in the most tasteful American Stile, and this is Cape Palmas, and this is what Cavalla has done for Africa,

Yes at Cape Palmas, the native lives,
Who a heathen was but now,
A teacher and a preacher is,

After feasting our eyes and souls on this and other Scenes, at 6, O'Clock P.M. we returned to the Cape, Governor Drayton and Mr Gibson accompanied us in our visit to Mr Hoffmans Station for that is the name of this native gentleman who is in charge of this most useful and most tasteful Hoffman Station,

At what is called Little Town Mr Hoffman myself bade Governor Drayton and Mr Gibson good night, and we parted this day was on our return, Mr Hoffman and myself walked on together on our way home, we too parted
