Colonization Rooms
Washington 6 Oct. 1856

My Dear Sir

This will be handed to you by Mrs. Burum, from Tennessee, who is on her way to Baltimore with Seven of her Servants, whom she wants to send to Liberia. Circumstances rendered it necessary for her to start with them, so early, & now she wants to leave them in Baltimore until our ship Sails — And as they may need a protector, I take the liberty of referring her to you.

Yours very truly
W. McLain
