Shirley in payment for which I have drawn on you at sixty days from sight in favor of J. B. McGill for Three Hundred and Fifty nine 00/100 Dolls

You probably may receive a small Draft of Twenty five Dollars on a/c of my Salary in favor of R. S McGill bearing date of June 30th 1855 I allude to it to explain what it is and here it is. This Draft was drawn by me for my salary due at the time of the date it bears viz. June 30 1855 and paid out last week it was handed to me to be altered according to the form I received from you. After mature consideration I consented to do so destroying the original and giving this the same date it bore By referring to my accounts (semi annual) rendered June 30/55 you will find an account of this Dft.
