My Dear Sir

I have a letter from Mrs. E. P. Ireland wanting me to give her husband a passage to C. Palmas, to be paid for after she reaches there. I am in doubt about it. I think it is contrary to our rule to take pay except in advance. But what can I do? I presume he ought to go — & if he can go, he ought to go as soon as possible. Do you think they can still pay within six months after they reach there? Please write a single line tomorrow, that I may answer her. — And say, can the Stevens be in H. Roads to receive Smyth. 4 Dec.? — I am must fix a day for them to assemble there — What day shall it be? The 1st Dec. is Monday — uggy day to sail — Could we get her off Saturday 29 Nov.?

Yours faithfully

W. McSain
