Dear Sir,

I learn from Rev Jos. Tracy that you are about sailing in a few days for Liberia — I write at his suggestion to call your attention to an article for roofs, which we manufacture, and which is quite extensively used in this and other countries & in all climates, and has given very general satisfaction — I send by mail a pamphlet with general information and testimonials for your perusal; with the hope that you will look into the subject at once, and give me your views thereon —

The Colonization Society will doubtless be induced to give it a trial when they send out building material again — which Mr Tracy says will be next year.

We can furnish you this material which is only adapted to flat roofs, or those
