I know I who am good friends of ours all died with the Yellow fever. It is important to have those papers speak well of us.— What do you say to these things? There would be some advantage if some good Editor from Richmond could be here. But I do not know one who all things considered could be trusted.

If you approve of any or all the names I have mentioned just send them to the Committee

The notice contains a blank, which ought to be filled. Please telegraph me tomorrow, Hall I may say to your Com. tomorrow night & say at what hour the guests are to meet at the Ulster House to go to the Ship? Olivs will reach Balt. at 10½ A.M. — Will the Com. as the invitation says meet them at the Depot? or merely at the Ulster?

Yours truly

W. McLain
