Gent

Your esteemed favor of the 18th was duly received.
I regret very much that I shall not be able to accept your very kind invitation for next Tuesday, as I think it will be a very interesting occasion to the friend of Colonization, and should be very happy to be there if possible, and I regret it the more, as I do not find any one of our board who can attend. I hoped we should have some one to represent the Connecticut Society on that occasion

Yours very Respectfully
