Dr Hall

My Dear Sir.

I found my bag & the bundle of books after riding away off to a bye street in a Hatter's office & evidently with the hope of having the direction of the books destroyed the paper had all been torn off & I shall not be surprised if some of the books were lost. I took them to the Hotel & had the bundle by a Public Porter L. Giles No 83. sent it to our friend Coates 43. Market Street who will forward it to you by Express. As I have George's shawl he may keep mine till we meet again & then if he will bring on my boots he may have his shoes. I go in the morning to Newburgh & so West to Rochester. With you an abundantly safe & prosperous voyage, as well as to our friend Kate from whom I expect a long & very interesting letter. Have not been home yet. Adieu.

Ever truly yours,

J. B. Pinney
