My dear sir,

I beg leave to recommend to your friendly notice & advice William Douglas, & his wife Susan Douglas, with their daughter Molly, who are going out in the same ship with you to Liberia. They have all been born & brought up in our neighbourhood, & will, I am sure, by their good character & qualities, merit the kind interest I involve on their behalf. — Believe me, my dear sir, to be with great respect very truly & faithfully your's
