he would like to see it — But I think he or some friend for him had better visit the lands & make the selection. In that case I am sure the operation would be an advantageous one.

The Dr. Hall — desired me to send you the bills made at Norfolk for the ships irs. of Ary Winslow for $48.63 for sundries & of A. S. Oldoi & Co. for sundries — And I ask you to carry them to the Contractors whose duty it was to furnish those things & make them refund the money. So I inclose the bills. I hope they will pay us back!

I also inclose a note for $1.127.37 for Wm Longcope & Co. in payment of bill date 26 Nov. 1856. which I also inclose for their receipt — Now to save postage & trouble let them send me a receipt which I can attach to the bill —

Shall I send one note to cover all those given by the Doctor for insurance?

Yours truly
W. McLain
