My Dear Sir

Yours per Ship A B Stevens came safely to hand monday last the 15th inst with it arrived also your father and sister, and I do assure you sir, that few things in life could have given us more satisfaction than the arrival of our long and well tried friend. your father just at a time when a crisis more awful than ever before befell us was upon us i.e a sanguinary war, Indeed I regard the coming out of your father, and his arrival at Cape Palmas just when he did, as most signal manifestation of the providence of God Is it not necessary that I stop here to give my reasons for so saying. His interest in our behalf both at Monrovia before he reached us, (after hearing of our
