any protection whatever to any of the members of the various Mission Schools.

7thly. That the Cape Palmas and Graway people promise to submit all disputes which cannot be amicably adjusted between themselves and other tribes to be referred to the government for settlement. The Kwin Cavally, Barroken, Pelibo people the friends of the Cape Palmas and Graway people shall not make war or palaver with either or all of those tribes who have fought against the Cape Palmas and Graway Tribes with the Americans.

8thly. That the Graway, Palmas and Kwin Cavally people shall not, in case of the wreck of any vessel on the beach near their towns, take, conceal or plunder any such wrecks, but in all such cases to return all goods to the Captain, Supercargo, or Agent as may be found or picked up, for which they may be entitled to salvage. They shall not engage in the Slave trade under the penalties provided therefor by law.

9thly. That the Cape Palmas people have free egress and ingress to carry away their growing crops from their farms without molestation from the Americans. The Americans shall desist from using cassada.

10thly. That the Cape Palmas and Graway people cease from burying their dead on Russwurm Island from the signing of this treaty.

In witness whereof we have hereunto affixed our names

Maryland Historical Society

The Maryland State Colonization Society Papers

II. Correspondence Received
A. Letter Books

13. May 1855--October 1857

1857