WELL PAINTED, WELL DRESSED

There is a satisfaction about a well-painted house similar to what one feels in wearing good clothes. It is like feeling at home in good company.

Quality does it. The best paint materials, properly applied, give the house a distinction that it lacked before. The house is well dressed.

Nor is the distinction temporary. A paint coat of and pure linseed oil looks well after years of wear. The quality lasts. It serves both for looks and protection.

We carry the pure white lead guaranteed by the

DUTCH BOY PAINTER TRADE MARK

besides a full stock of oils, turpentines, varnishes, colors and brushes. Come and see us. It pays to buy the best.

ROCK HALL NOTES.

Entertainment Reception and Dance Given by Sitting Bull Tribe.

"Beaver Moon 25th G. S. D. 319." One of the most enjoyable events of the past Thanksgiving week was a grand entertainment, reception and dance given by Sitting Bull Tribe 139, Imp O. R. M. of this place on the "setting of the sun" of the above date.

After "quenching the Council fire" the doors of the Wigwam were thrown open to the public, when immediately the large hall was packed to its fullest sitting and standing capacity and many were huddled on the stairway and passage. The exercises consisting of song and music, recitations, dialogue, tableau and other interesting features was participated in by the following: Mrs. R. A. Shalleross, pianist, Miss Anna May Ayres, pianist, Mrs. James Rodney, Mrs. Fredya Kramer, Etta Durding, Esther Jones, Olivia Clayton and other young ladies whose names we cannot recall, and Messrs. Max Alexander, Walter Coleman and Prof. F. A. Greenhawk. The exercises began by singing the opening ode of the order, Columbia, the gem of the Ocean, followed by address of welcome by Miss Fredya Kramer, then followed songs by Mr. Coleman and Miss Jones. Recitation by Mrs Rodney which was superb and had a most pleasing effect; this was followed by Prof. Greenhawk in the comical role of a funny countryman which kept the entire assembly in a spell of laughter for 15 minutes. Next was an automobile song, "I have no sweetheart but you," by Miss Durding and Mr. Alexander which was vociferously encored and repeated with piano accompaniment by Miss Ayres. Next was a solo by Miss Durding. Then followed the grandest feature of the evening, a tableau consisting of a song and drill representing patriotism by Miss Durding, Mr. Alexander and a number of small girls; also an indian silent scene, representing redmenship, this took the house by storm; next was a pleasing dialogue by Misses Clayton and Jones. Then followed one of the latest songs, "By the Light of the Silver Moon," by Miss Durding and Mr. Alexander with piano accompaniment by Miss Ayres; this, too, was rigorously encored.

Ham sandwiches in great abundance were then served at 9:30, after which the floor space was cleared for tripping the light fantastic toe which was indulged in by many of the audience until 'low sun.'' This was one of the finest entertainments ever formulated and carried out in this town. Mr. Max Alexander was master of ceremonies and performed the duty with markedability.

While the program was splendidly rendered yet too much praise cannot be given the committee of arrangements, Messrs. M. Alexander, chairman, G. R. S. Downey, Russell Seavell, G. A. Downey and Otis Downey, for their skillful engineering in the makeup of the affair, especially the chairman, who indefatigably labored day and night in his efforts to make the whole a success. The splendid success of the affair and the fine decoration of the Hall was evidence of his fertile mind and labor of hands.

Sitting Bull Tribe has been adding extensive material to its membership roll of late, and no doubt their latest entertainment will be prospective of quite an extra enlargement.

MY VISIT TO KENT.

Dear Editors:—

On Saturday last at 4 P. M. I landed at Quaker Neck wharf and was met by Mr. C. G. Haddaway and was soon a guest in his pleasant home on the hill. This was my first visit to this particular section of your beautiful county and I was delighted with everybody and everything I saw, as has been my experience in other sections of Kent. Early in the evening Rev. Tilghman Smith, the pastor, and his wife came over from Pomona, and the hours passed very pleasantly.

Sunday dawned bright and glorious. There was much work before me. I felt equal to the task physically at least. A good night's sleep, a hearty breakfast and an earnest prayer for divine help made me confident of success.

At 10 A. M. I met the Sunday School at Bond Chapel and addressed it on the lesson, taking occasion to appeal to the teachers to awaken to a full sense of responsibility. At 11 A. M. I preached to a good congregation. I was glad to see ex-Senator James H. Baker in the audience, etc. bears his affliction with christian patience.

At 3 P. M. I met Mowbray Chapel school and gave it an address which seemed to be much appreciated. At 7.30 I again preached at Bond Chapel. I received many warm handclasps at each of the services. Quite a number with much feeling said my efforts had done them good. The pastor was by my side through all the labors of the day. He is a good man. May God bless him and his companion.

I was much pleased with the earnestness of the two superintendents, Mr. A. C. Loud, of Bond, and Mr. Raymond Startt, of the Mowbray school, and also their teachers. I am particularly interested in rural Sunday schools. In a quiet way they are helping to build character and prepare boys and girls for the serious obligations of life. I come across so many consecrated ministers of the gospel and christian business men whose faces were turned towards God and righteousness at the little country Sunday School.

On Monday morning hearing the whistle of the B. S. Ford, I said goodbye to our host and his delightful household. They said, "Stop off any time!" They meant it and I shall take pleasure in doing so.
