unanimous suffrages. three Commissioners was Elected to arrange the terms of amigation. citizens Simm. Drayton, & Fuller.
This day the County organization goes virtually into effect.
It will be admitted that this feature of Conservation is feasible. the humiliation is but a mere cipher in comparison to the ultimate design. our isolated position tended to retard our successful progress, and to have increased expenditures for which we were illy prepared to liquidate to place the State on the equality to which our Independent Organization required, I have again and again taxed my favor. ~~Increased~~ to shape the course of the little ship of State. that success may ultimately redound to the common success of that ship which envelopes all our present hopes and future glory.
I would have been much gratified if my Constituents had have waited and pursued the formal procedure of the County annexation. but the people in their Sovereign Character have spoken and I bow in deference to their superior claim as the Sixty's act of Confederacy will no doubt at an early day claim the attention of our People, perhaps that question is now revolving in the minds of our Statesmen, the prosperous and successful prosperation of County organization. will be the guarantee the security of the anticipated establishment of the union of States on the Western Coast of Africa. The Colonization ship el. C. Stevens, was visited by many of our citizens who pronounced her a superior naval architect. really if I was predisposed to act antagonistical to colonization schemes the incontestible evidence of their abiding interest in all that concerns that class of people who have been so favourable, granted on these shores would

Maryland Historical Society

The Maryland State Colonization Society Papers

II. Correspondence Received
A. Letter Books

13. May 1855—October 1857

1857