My Dear Sir

The June number of your always interesting "Journal" came to hand this morning:- reminding us that it has commenced another year of its useful existence.

We need three numbers to complete our set for binding - viz: June 1853, September 1856, and May, 1857 - the latter never having been received.

Be pleased to favor us with them at your earliest convenience, and much oblige,

Very respectfully Yours,
Wm Coppinger
Treas: P. C. S.
