My Dear Sir

George L Seymour, in letter to me from the Pegfey Country, one hundred miles, as he estimates distance to E. from Bagsa describes the Camwood Forest, a little this side of his place of residence as very abundant. He thinks a wagon road can be opened to it for $3000, says that it can be had at our own price & that it (camwood) can be bought standing for $3 per ton. He believes we might avail ourselves of this trade & thus become vast means for Colonization. He has
