Still Moving

is our Reduction Sale and no wonder, for the trade have learned some time ago, that

Our Reductions

Are Reductions

i. e., prices reduced from former low quotations. This is the cause—'tis and has been our getting rid of plan for a number of years.

We still have some good things left, yet we advise

AN EARLY CALL

All winter wearables such as—Suits, Overcoats, Gloves, Sweater Coats, Separate Trousers, etc., included in this sale.

Moody & Lusby

Directly Opposite Court House,

CHESTERTOWN, MD.

LOCAL NOTES

THE well-known comedians Startt and Skirven have signed to play in the "Musical Comedy" on March the 8th, next Friday, Stam's Hall.

CAPT. WM. SLAGLE made a big catch of rock fish off Cliffs, last Friday and Saturday. He caught 16 rock, one weighing 28 pounds, one 22 lbs, another 14 lbs., and others 10 and 11 pounds each.

MR. JAMES T. DECORSE advertises his personalty elsewhere in the NEWS. The farm has been rented to Mr. Jas. Coleman, Jr. Mr. Decorse says he had twelve applicants to rent this farm.

A LAWYER from the West was in Kent this week looking for Mrs Wm Crouch, of Piney Neck, who had fallen heir to some property by the death of a cousin.

THE indications are that there will be some peaches. Mr. George Bell brought to the NEWS office yesterday a fair sample and these twigs indicate there will be a third of a crop of Elbertas, one-half of red fruit and but very few Reeves.

THE truck farm of Mr. James W. Lambert in Queen Anne's, near Chestertown, and on the Chester river, was sold this week by the L. B. Russell & Co. real estate firm to Dr. M. Earle and William B. Usilton.

AT a meeting of the Hagerstown liverymen it was decided to raise the rates for boarding horses from $15 to $18 a month to $18 to $20 a month. This action was taken on account of the high price of feed.

LETTERS of administration on the estate of the late Thomas J. Willis were granted Tuesday to Mr. Harry C. Willis. Mr. H. H. Klinefelter made application for letters on estate of Dr. S. E. Ford and will bond for $40,000.

IT is with regret we note the fact that Mr. Wm. P. Milby, agent Pennsylvania railroad at Chestertown, has been transferred to Trappe, Talbot county, from whence he came here. He will be succeeded by Mr. Legg, of Marydel.

J. H. CLENDANIEL, of near Kennedyville, has purchased of E. E. Ceas, of Miland, Mich., the standred-bred trotter, Krume. He is a mahogany bay, black points and weighs 1240 pounds. He will stand in Kent and Cecil counties.

A CHANGE of schedule on the Chester River line goes into effect March 11th. B. S. Ford will leave Chestertown alternate days at 7 a. m. and leave Baltimore at 1 p. m. The Corsica will make one trip a week to Crumpton. By the new schedule Rock Hall will have a daily boat.

THE Turner Home farm located near Betterton was sold this week to Mr. W. H. Kelley, of Baltimore, for $11,500. This farm contains about 120 acres in fine state of cultivation with elegant home and finely located. Mr. Kelley expects to occupy the home. Welcome to Kent.

THE mite box in the vestibule of Emmanuel Church was broken open Tuesday afternoon by miscreants and the contents stolen. Dr. Martin does not think there was over ten cents there. It is beyond belief that anyone with right mind would steal the offerings given a church.

THE Court of Appeals Wednesday rendered an opinion in case of R. F. Parks & Son vs. Griffith & Boyd Co. Judgment reversed with costs to appellants and new trial awarded. Lewin W. Wickes and R. Groome Parks, Esqs., were local counsel and are to be congratulated upon the legal victory. Mr. Parks made the argument before the Court of Appeals. H. H. Barroll, Esq., and Mr. Goslin represented the Griffith & Boyd Co.

MARCUS ASHER, the "Fur King," shipped to Baltimore Monday one of the finest lot of furs seen here for many years. The lot was estimated to be worth $3 000. Among them was a curiosity in the way of a cross between a brown and black rat worth $2, then there were ten beautiful foxes worth $5 each, 100 polecats, 100 skunks, 50 opossums, 12 mink, 100 raccoons, etc. Mr. Asher has his headquarters in the Sides Garage and pays good prices for furs.

AN interesting debate took place at Fraternal Hall Tuesday evening on whether or not women shall be given the right of franchise. Messrs. J. B. McIntyre, Prof. L. J. Smyth and Rev. W. B. Coleman took the negative and won, Messrs. J. F. Wheatley, William Melin and John C. Davis having the affirmative. The judges were Messrs. Wm. Hague, George Starr and J. Frank Eburn. It is said that some of the speakers used arguments that it would not be well for their wives to have heard.

ON February 24th, a new Rural Telephone Company was organized to connect with Chestertown, Md., exchange. The subscribers to this new line are Henry Brown, W. R. Startt, Miss Bertha Woodmender, S. L. Weller and Robert R. Walbert, who was appointed agent for the company. This company will operate in the vicinity of Quaker Neck and will be known as the Mt. Vernon Telephone Co. This makes the fourth Line, with twenty six stations, organized in this neighborhood in the past nine months.

Mr. Vernon Bowen, of Church Hill, met with a very painful accident last Monday morning by slipping on the ice and breaking one of the bones in his ankle. Dr. N. S. Dudley reduced the fracture and though suffering consider-

Personal and Social

State Senator Beck was detained at home several days this week by sickness but was enabled to go to Annapolis Wednesday.

Delegate Miller has been confined to his home at Gratitude for the past week by sickness.

Dr. James W. Cain, principal of Washington College, is attending the anniversary exercises of Pittsburgh University at Pittsburgh this week as the representative from Washington College.

Mr. Simon Westcott, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Westcott, of Chestertown, is now in Jacksonville, Florida. He says that the people are wearing straw hats, vegetables are growing, fruit trees in bloom and the weather just like the middle of June in Kent. A card from him shows him riding an ostrich!

Mrs. Clara Clinkerman, who has been in the family of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hubbard, for ten years, has resigned her position and removed to Baltimore together with her son, Otis.

Mr and Mrs. Fox and Mrs. H. S. Barnett, of Baltimore spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Vernon D. Barnett on Kent Circle.

Mrs. Geo. B. McWhorter, who has been confined to her home by an injured limb, is now able to be about.

Mr. Lloyd Porter, and sister, spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives in Queen Anne's.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee G. Holleman, of Anderson, S. C., are spending some days in town guests of the latter's sister, Mrs. H. B. Rote. They report the mercury down to 8° during the winter, even as far South as their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Westcott announce the engagement of their daughter, Ellen Louisa to Mr. Wilbur Draper Gill, of Nashville, Tenn. The wedding will take place early in May.

Miss Louise Carroll, daughter of town commissioner Wm. S. Carroll, and a teacher in one of the public schools of Baltimore county, was taken to a city hospital on Saturday last and operated on for appendicitis. Mr. and Mrs. Carroll and Miss Mamie Carroll visited her this week and report her doing as well as can be expected.

Master Julian Duyer, who has been at the State Sanatarium for several months was taken to a Baltimore city hospital on Monday to undergo a surgical operation for abscess. His devoted aunt, Miss Minnie Hudson, is with him.

Mrs Joseph Rasin returned from Baltimore Thursday morning. She has a very acceptable position at the Samuel Ready school and, consequently, has decided to discontinue housekeeping and is busy now packing and storing her household effects before returning Monday to her duties at the school. Her interesting little daughter, Mary Burke, is a student at the school.—Queenstown News.

Mrs. Mary Flanagan, Townsend, Del., spent several days of last week with her little nephew, Master Burton Ladell Warren, with his grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Kendall, of Fairlee.

Miss Cattie L. Kendall very pleasantly entertained about thirty of her young friends at her home in Fairlee on Friday evening, Feb. 22nd, in commemoration of Washington's birthday.

Mr. Philip G. Wilmer is confined to the home of his uncle on Washington Avenue with rheumatism in his limb. Mr. Wilmer has about recovered from his broken limb and now the rheumatism has attacked the other. He has the sympathy of a host of friends.

Mr. Frank M. Miller visited a specialist in Philadelphia last week and from an X ray picture learned that instead of having rheumatism in his limb, the pain came from a splintered bone. It was put in a cast by Dr. Eldridge Eliason and Mr. Miller hopes to soon be relieved.

Miss Jennie Hines, daughter of Mrs. W Frank Hines, of Chestertown, sailed last Saturday from New York for Bermuda with the Bartlett Haywood party to be gone several weeks.

Mrs. John H. Simpers, of Chestertown, had a severe fall from her porch this week and sustained several bruises.

Mrs. Wilbur Hurlock and daughter, of Chestertown, came last week on a visit to her father, Mr. Horace Payne, and her brother, Mr. Harland Payne. Mr. Hurlock came down this week to accompany his wife to Baltimore to attend a social function. They returned to Snow Hill the latter part of this week.—Snow Hill Messenger.

Mr. Charles Pippin, of Philadelphia, is visiting the folks in town.

Mrs. Moore, nee Miss Lottie Wickes, and son are guests of Mrs. H. H. Barroll.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E Keller, Buckeytown, have issued invitations to the wedding of their daughter, Miss Heloise Keller, to L. Ridgely Sheridan, son of Dr Sheridan. The wedding will take place in the Methodist Episcopal Church Buckeystown, at high noon, March 14.

Mr. Underwood Kelley, of Washington College, was called home this week by the extreme illness of his mother in Somerset.

STILL POND ITEMS.

Mr. Ben Quimby, of Seaford, Del., is spending sometime with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bowers.

Mr. Wm. H. Thompson fell one day last week and wrenched his foot. He was housed for a few days but is out again now.

Mr. Eugene Bonwill, a farmer living near here had a shed blown over in the terrific wind of last Wednesday, Feb 21, and killed two of his best cows.

The entertainment held in Harper's Hall Tuesday night was "alright." Next Thursday, March 7th, Betterton will give an entertainment in Harper's Hall. Look for a good show.

Mr. Chas. Walter and Mr. Harry Jones are spending a few days in Baltimore.

Sunday, March 3, at Still Pond M. E. Church, 9 30 Sunday School, preaching by the pastor, Rev. J. H. Beauchamp at 10 45, subject, "Doubts Cleared Away," 7 30 Epworth League and brief sermon.

The Ladies Aid will meet at the home of Mrs. Wm. Medders at 2 30 Wednesday afternoon, March 6th
