Seeks Anty Drudge's Advice.

Mrs. Neighbor—"Won't you please tell me, Anty Drudge, how you keep your curtains so snowy white? Mine are supposed to be white though I suppose you think like everybody else that they're ecru."

Anty Drudge—"Why, certainly, Mrs. Neighbor. It's the easiest thing in the world. I wash them myself with Fels-Naptha soap in lukewarm water. Fels-Naptha makes them white and that kind of washing doesn't wear them out nearly so fast."

Leaning over a steaming washtub is a fine way to ruin the complexion. Heat and steam redden and inflame the face. Then a touch of cold air will roughen and chap the skin.

That is one of the many reasons why thinking women prefer to wash clothes with Fels-Naptha soap in lukewarm water.

It saves the hands and face from harm.

It saves the danger of taking cold in Winter, because you don't need to have your kitchen or laundry full of steam like a Turkish bath.

It saves fuel; you don't need an overhot fire.

It saves the clothes, because there is no boiling to weaken them and no hard-rubbing to wear them into holes before their time.

Isn't all that worth while?

Yes, you'll say, if it will make the clothes clean.

Just try it. They'll be cleaner, sweeter, whiter than you could get them any other way. And Fels-Naptha is just as effective with flannels, woolens, colored clothes.

Be sure to get the genuine Fels-Naptha and follow directions on the red and green wrapper.

GALENA ITEMS.

Sunday was Missionary Day in the Sunday School. More than thirteen dollars was given to Missons for March.

Miss Mattie Whitaker, of Pomona spent Saturday and Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Ella Whitaker.

Quite a number of our friends in town are planning to attend Conference. Mr. Thomas Caldwell has been elected Lay Delegate from Galena to the Lay Electral Conference.

A crowd of our young people had a jolly horseback ride last Saturday afternoon. Roads and weather were just right for such sport and the riding habits of the ladies were quite becoming.

Mr. Theo. Dempsey who has been suffering for the past week with bronchitis is able to be out once more.

Miss Gertrude Dempsey, who has been quite ill with tonsilitis s reported much improved at this writing.

We are sorry to report that Mrs. Sarah Mason is quite ill at this writing.

Mrs. John Ford and Miss Edna are suffering from an attack of La Grippe.

Mrs. Price, of near town, has been quite ill for the past two weeks. Mrs. Price was busy around the house, apparently in fair health and was taken suddenly with acute indigestion.

Mrs. Jos. Dixon has a nice little flock of chickens all feathered. How's that for "Spring Chicken"?

The birthday party given last Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Holt Woodall in honor of the birthdays of Andrew, their ten year old son, and Mary and Frances McCauley two little cousins, was very much enjoyed by all present. A large crowd of little folks, as well as some older ones, were present and spent the evening playing game.

Mr. and Mrs. James Caldwell of near town gave a Birthday Supper and party last Thursday evening in honor of the twenty-first birthday of their son, James E., who is attending Goldey College Wilmington. Among those present were: Miss Bolton, of Middletown, Misses Mabel Norris, Katie Capps, Lucile Parr and Jennie Bowers, of Still Pond. Miss Lena King and brother, from Warwick, Mr. Herbert Ford, of Black, Mr. Franklin McCoy, of Chesapeake City, Miss Skinner, of Chesterville Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Price, Mr. Stewart Price, Miss Catherine from Millington, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Caldwell, Misses Emily, Mary and Marian Caldwell, Evelyn Ford, Carrie Dempsey, Pearle Ford, Messrs. Robt. Fogwell, William Dempsey, Carl Norris, Nicholus Walters, Ben Jarvis, from town and Mr. Frank Hillegus, of Wilmington. The evening was spent in playing games after which refreshments were served in abundance. There were about sixty guests present. He received some valuable presents including a gold watch and chain and other useful gifts.

KENNEDYVILLE NOTES.

Mr. Wallace Atwell, one of our rural mail carriers, has been suffering from that old enemy lagrippe, for several days past, accompanied with considerable sore threat. We hope he may soon be all right for his daily trips for Uncle Sam.

Mr. Thomas Jones, of near town, is another who has been indisposed for some days past.

Mrs. Martha Crossley is very sick at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Dr. J. W. Urie. Bright's disease is the trouble aggravated by cold. Miss Lucille Parr of Still Pond, is assisting her aunt in nursing her grandmother.

We are pleased to learn that Mrs. Webster Hill, who recently underwent an operation in a Baltimore hospital, is doing well, and is expected home soon.

Mrs. Joseph H. Weer has had with her for the past week, Mrs. Hayes and Miss Annie Hayes, her mother and sister, of Galena. Mrs. Weer also entertained one day last week her brother's wife and child, of Dover, Del.

Mrs. Chas. N. Satterfield, of Chestertown was a guest over Sunday of Rev. and Mrs. F. H. Mullineaux, and attended services with them at the M. P. Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Hague visited relatives in Delaware from Saturday until Sunday evening, and while there attended the marriage of a nephew, Mr. Sylvester.

Mr. Webster Hague is spending a few days with his parents in our village, and sang in the M. P. Church choir Sunday evening.

Miss Laura Hague, of Still Pond, also attended the M. P. Church services Sunday morning.

The quarterly meeting, with banquet, of the Kennedyville Grange, will be held in Weer's Hall Saturday afternoon next, at which time some visitors from the Fairlee Grange, and perhaps others, are expected. A goodly number of candidates, who have been elected to membership, are to receive their four degrees in the near future. The Grange is growing, and is in a delightfully healthy condition.

A meeting of the Farmers' Institute is to be held in Weer's Hall on Monday next, beginning at 10.30 a. m. Open doors, and all most cordially invited. A session will be held in the afternoon as well

Because of the meeting of the Farmers' Institute on Monday, the Fourth Quarterly Conference of the Kennedyville Charge M. P. Church, will meet Saturday morning of the present week, the 9th inst. At the kind invitation of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Cleaver, the Conference will hold its session in their home. A full attendance of all the Official members is earnestly solicited. Remember the time and place. A members' meeting under the direction of the Board of Stewards, will be held next Sunday morning just after the sermon in the M. P. Church, for the election of delegate and alternate for the approaching Annual Conference to be held in Laurel, Del.

Because of the rough roads, severe cold weather, and so many being indisposed, the attendance at the church services in our village last Sunday was unusually small.

For the M. P. Church next Sunday, the 10th inst., Sunday School at 9.30 a. m., Superintendent, John Medders; Sermon at 10.30, topic, "A Workman That Needeth Not to be Ashamed." Junior C. E. Service at 2.30, and Song Service with 20 minute sermon, beginning at 7 o'clock. Church delightfully comfortable. A cordial welcome to all.
