Dr James Hall

II A 24

My Dear Sir. Putnam for whom you got goods in 1849-50 when Hooper went out has sued Mr Phelps & me As in those days I did not keep copies of my letters I wish you would send me by express the Volume of letters containing mine & Putnams on that subject from Oct 31st 49 to Feby 1st 50 The trial comes on next Monday.

If you can't let me have the books send me extracts from the letters - so far as they relate to this subject. I think I wrote first to ask for freight for him and afterwards to recommend them to you for a small credit. Do put me in possession of what I wrote

Oblige your mate
