I proposed to consult you, Mr. Pinney &c. But the measure is lost & this is enough to say at present. My health being too bad to travel by land I propose to take the Steamer to Charleston in a week or ten days." Now that is what he says & all he says — I did not mean to copy his letter — but as I did not want to misrepresent him — & Mr. Hanley did not want me to say any thing to prejudice you against him — I just thought I would let him speak for himself. — "Finis." —

I wish you would see Mr. Machen & stir him up about Atwells suit — & let us have a decision —

What is the shape of your bill? Put it in the Md. Col. Jour. for this mo. so we can see. The Va. ap^n. is lost — gone dead! —

What have you bought lately? a house? — I am happy to say that I am better — much better — I hope the weather will open out more yet!

Yours

W. W. Seth
