My Dear Sir

I am happy to have it in my power to fully comply with the request contained in your favor of yesterday at hand this morning. Herewith I mail to your address, postage prepaid, all the numbers of the Colonization Herald for the years 1855 and 1856, and the December, 1857, number.

A goodly supply of letters, papers, pamphlets &c reached me yesterday from Liberia by the good ship "M. C. Stevens." I have not yet received Prest Benson's last message. If you have a spare copy, please send it to me by return mail.

The box for E. J. Cresson of this City by the "Stevens" from Monrovia, contains curiosities for a public free Scientific Society located here. Have the goodness to forward it and send bill to Mr Cresson, No 308 Walnut St, or to Yours very resp^y,

Wm Coppinger
