Philadelphia june 28th 1858.

Dr. James Hall,

Dear Sir, I find that it will be until the latter part of july before I shall reach Baltimore again, and therefore, as I met with an excellent young gentleman who intends to call on you on business, owing to his standing and reputation in this City, I should have been bound to place implicit confidence in him even if the amount had been of any consideration. And Now I beg leave to introduce to your ~~acqua~~ acquaintance Mr. E. S. Morris, he is from a first family in this City and has become quite popular himself in different parts of the Union by a medicine which he is preparing and sending to all quarters of the globe. I have given to him the sum of fifteen dollars which I am due you; he will present the same to you and receive the
