Anty Drudge Agrees with Nellie.

May—"Let's play washday, Nellie, and wash the dolly's clothes. We'll use this tin pail for a washboiler and I'll go put it on the kitchen stove to heat water."

Nellie—"Oh, no! My mama doesn't wash that way. She washes with Fels-Naptha in lukewarm water and she says it's lots easier."

Anty Drudge—"Nellie is right, children. The Fels-Naptha way is a long sight easier and better way of washing than boiling the clothes. It's more like play and saves clothes wonderfully."

The old-fashioned wash-boiler way of washing clothes is bad enough in Summer when it can be done out of doors.

In the Winter, when four walls keep in all the steam and all the nauseous odors so you have to stew in them, washing clothes that way is drudgery of the most disagreeable kind.

Are you foolish enough to continue it?

You won't be when you have once done your washing the Fels-Naptha way in lukewarm water.

No boiling of clothes. No steam Turkish bath to redden and blotch your face.

No smells. No back-breaking work.

Washing with Fels-Naptha in lukewarm water is just as pleasant in Winter as in Summer.

Try it next washday. All that's necessary is to follow simple directions printed on the red and green wrapper.

Try it for the flannels, woolens, colored clothes as well as the white things.

Be sure to get the genuine Fels-Naptha.

KENNEDYVILLE NOTES.

We hear a few poultry growers speaking of the early spring chicks. Among the rest a brood of nineteen beauties at the M. P. parsonage, two weeks old this Tuesday the 2nd.

All the sick named in our last week's notes are improving.

Mr. Hartley Weer, of Sparrow's Point, Baltimore, is at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Weer, convalescing after an attack of lagrippe, threatened with pneumonia. His mother is indisposed at this writing.

Mr. Isaac Cleaver has been very much ailing for the past few days, suffering from a nail scratch on the hand, resulting in inflammation and fever; however, at this writing his condition is much improved.

Master John Dukes fractured his collar bone playing ball, recently, but is doing very nicely.

Mr. Harry Hill is spending his Easter holidays at home with his mother.

Mrs. Lulu Dukes, Bruce and Elizabeth, will spend the Easter holidays with relatives in Denton.

Mrs. Mullineaux spent a couple of days in Baltimore last week.

Mrs. Nora Wiltbank Dill, of Baltimore, is spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wiltbank, of Kennedyville. Her many friends were glad to see her in the M. P. Sunday School and Church services last Sunday.

A large number attended the Kennedyville Grange meeting Monday night when questions of great interest were discussed. Mr. Edgar R. Pennington, Worthy Overseer, gave a good talk on how to bring up the farm to its best condition, and Mr. John Redmile gave an able address on the composition or make up of fertilizers, their scientific use, as plant food, availability, etc. The good Worthy Lecturer, Miss Emma Shafer, announced a question box for next Monday night and urged that all give their special attention. A number of new names were proposed for membership.

Facts From Ford

The Question? The Answer!

EXPENSES OF AN AUTO.

To the Editor of "The Press."

Sir:—Can some reader who has handled his own car tell whether it is possible for a man in ordinary circumstances to own and run an automobile without bankrupting himself.

I happen to be situated so that I can make the investment necessary for the purchase without cramping myself or depriving my family of the necessities of life. The first cost doesn't bother me so much as the probable second cost.

I have heard from so many that a man cannot own and run a car for less than from $50 to $100 a month, if he gets any good out it.

I want to use the car to take my family out riding for an hour or so in the evenings during summer months and for Sunday trips. Some of you sane drivers with staid families give us your experience.

R. D. ROYER.

Philadelphia, Nov. 19, 1911.

COST TO RUN AN AUTO.

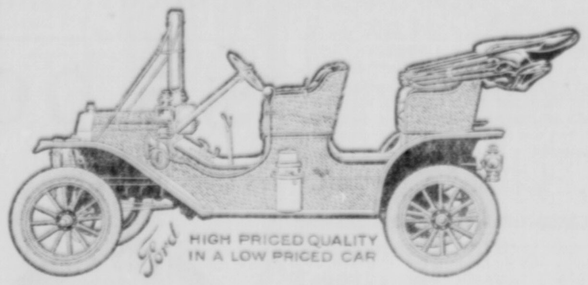

To the Editor of "The Press."

Sir:—I notice in issue of today R. D. Royer hesitates to purchase an auto because it is alleged that it would cost $50 to $100 per month to run one. He asks for experience of drivers and will probably get plenty of replies. For his benefit, will say that in my medical practice I have this summer run a Model T Ford 3700 miles of rough Northern Pennsylvania country roads at a total cost of $5.60 for repairs. One gallon 12-cent gasoline carries me 20 miles, and one gallon of 45-cent oil carries me 150 miles. In other words, my entire expense for the season of 3700 miles has been $40.

My tires are good for another season. Understand, I do my own driving. The hills I climb every day would be called mountains around Philadelphia, but they have no terrors for me, and my family of four often accompany me. I will be pleased to answer any questions Mr. Royer may wish to write me.

DR. J. C. LEE.

Rummerfield, Pa., Nov. 21, 1911.

Here is an exact cut of Mr. James Brice's car. Ask him what it has cost him to run this car for two years—for repairs and replacements. I think he will tell you it hast not cost him 50 cents for two years for repairs or replacements.

Figures Count.

We received a letter the other day from a Model T owner in Randolph, N. Y., a Mr. Wm. L. Rathbone, stating that he ran his car a total 5532 miles from March 1, 1911 the date of its purchase. Mr. Rathbone keeps a complete expense account on his Moddel T, upkeep which he gives to us as follows:

Total cost or gasoline	$3 28
Total cost of oil	8 50
Total repair bill	3 45
Grand Total	$15 23

$45.23 for 9 months travel give an average monthly expense of $5 02 On figuring it by the mile gives an average cost of .008 per mile. Can you beat this Model T economy? Show us the horse and buggy that can be kept for $5 a month. We'd hate to see it.
