and so have the Court made —
And if so, we will so acknowledge it in the forth-coming African Repository? So shall it be?
As we propose to print in said interesting publication a list of the names of all such Colored people as leave the United States of America & Emigrate to their fathers land — Africa — it might be pleasant if you would be kind enough to favor me with the names of the two Baltimoreans who embarked in the Ship Mary Caroline Stevens
the 16th Nov. 1858 A.D. — They would probably not be particularly averse to have their names recorded in company with "Your Southern Negros!" I would however refer this question to your own
