ANNOUNCEMENT!

WE are now ready with our Spring lines and extend all an invitation to come and inspect the various departments.

We're proud of our selections and its pride that makes a fellow want to wear good clothes and its pride that makes us very fussy about the class of clothes we sell.

"Moody & Lusby Clothes" are clothes to be proud of.

We're proud of them and we know you'll be if you wear them. If you take pride in your looks you'll do your purchasing at a shop where pride of quality is a basic principle; one of the most important features upon which our business has been built.

We can fit—	We can fit—
BIG MEN	BIG BOYS
LITTLE MEN	LITTLE BOYS

and the prices are our usual LOW PRICES, and Merchandise JUST A LITTLE BETTER than the average for such values.

Come inspect the lines, compare qualities and we are willing to abide by the verdict.

A case which has attracted much attention in several counties of the Eastern Shore was finally disposed of Tuesday at Denton, when a jury brought in a verdict of $6,170 in favor of R. Nelson Stevens, trading as Stevens Bros., against Wilbur W. Hurlock, who was executor of the estate of the late Samuel R. Hurlock, of Queen Anne's county. Mr. [illegible] had [illegible] and [illegible]

LOCAL NOTES

A cargo of logs from North Carolina arrived at the basket factory this week and work has been resumed.

The debate at Church Hill Monday night resulted in a victory for Queen Anne's. Chestertown lodge acquitted itself finely and a fine evening was enjoyed. About 20 members went over in Thompson's big auto.

The duckers got into the game last Friday and bagged 31 fine ducks.

Wool is quoted at 22 cents and lambs from $4 to $5. The $5 lambs are being shipped now.

The Chautaqua will likely be held in Chestertown week of June 10th.

All ladies interested in town improvement are asked to meet at the home of Mrs. H. H. Barroll next Monday at 3 P. M.

The Ladies' Town Improvement Association will hold a dramatic and musical entertainment in Stam's Hall April 30 and May 1st.

The entertainment advertised to be given by the St. Paul Social and Musical Club and the King's Daughters of Chestertown has been postponed indefinitely.

The County Grange meeting at Fairlee Thursday was a splendid affair. A large attendance, fine addresses, good singing and a sumptuous dinner.

The latest recruits to the automobile ranks are Messrs. Arthur Prettyman and Arthur Bacon, two hustling Prudential Insurance agents.

The Chestertown Literary Club held a delightful meeting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Hughes, on Queen street, Saturday evening. The special feature of the evening was an address by Prof. Walter Gale, of the Maryland Institute, his subject being "Art." The select audience greatly enjoyed the occasion, and the hostess of the evening made each one feel perfectly at home.

Denny Hoffecker, who has been conducting a large clothing business in the Stam's Hall building, Chestertown, gave a deed of trust on Monday to Senator Wm. W. Beck and James T. Earle, who as trustees will dispose of the big stock. The liabilities are put at $15,600 with assets sufficient to cover same, it is said. By advertisement elsewhere in the News this big stock will be sold by the trustees, sale beginning today.

A fracas occurred at "Santiago" Saturday evening in which Gus Johnson shot at Jesse Ringgold who he claimed was invading his home. The shot went wild and struck just six inches above the head of Alfred Frisby who was asleep in an adjoining house!

There are rumors of a number of school changes. Miss Helen Wilkins has resigned as teacher at Locust Grove; Miss Lillian Matthews has resigned as teacher at Golt's and Miss Mills has given up her school at Lankford. Kent loses three good teachers.

A sun-dial stone, supposed to be a relic of the Washington College fire of 1827 was dug up in the street opposite Mr. Foxwell's home on Washington avenue on Monday. Prof. E. J. Clarke lay claim to the curiosity.

WEDDING BELLS

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Victorine Hackett and Mr. Daniel E. Biddle at Wilmington, Del., April 10. Mr. Biddle is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. C. Biddle, formerly of Lynchs, Md. After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Biddle will be at home at 3313 Madison street.

Marine—Mills.

The home of Mrs. Emma Coulbourne, Pocomoke City, was the scene of a very pretty wedding Wednesday morning when her niece, Miss Emma C. Mills and Mr. A. Stengle Marine, of Cambridge, were joined in holy wedlock. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the members of the immediate families and a few intimate friends of the bride and groom. After the ceremony they left on the northbound train for a trip of several days. They will be at home at the Hotel Dixon after the 13th. The groom is a prominent young member of the Cambridge bar and is owner of the Dorchester Standard and Cambridge Journal, which papers he recently purchased and merged. Mrs. Marine was a popular teacher in the public schools of Kent county, where she won the respect and esteem of the school officials and patrons.

Anderson—Maslin.

The marriage of Miss Bertie Maslin to Mr. Holden Anderson, both of Baltimore, was solomized at eight o'clock on Wednesday evening, April 3rd, at the bride's brother, Mr. Wm. B. Maslin, Massey, Md., and was followed by a reception to about fifty relatives and friends. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. E. Lewis, of Galena M. E. Church. The parlor was decorated with growing plants and white and yellow cut flowers. The same color scheme was used in the dining room. The bride wore a gown of white satin, trimmed with lace and silk fringe, and carried a large cluster of white carnations. The maid of honor was Miss Edith Maslin, niece of the bride. She wore a blue messaline gown and also carried carnations. The best man was Mr. Charles C. Hooper, of Wilmington, Del. After a wedding journey to Atlantic City Mr. and Mrs. Anderson will reside on their farm at Hanover, near Baltimore, Md.

Going Ahead.—The Fourth Estate has the following interesting and gratifying item referring to the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Boggs, of Crumpton, and who married the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Jefferson. The item is accompanied by a splendid photograph.

"C. W. Boggs, recently appointed business manager of the Davenport (Ia.) Democrat and Leader, has been connected with that paper for the last five years. Previously he was in charge of the financial, advertising and for the past three years had been advertising manager. He began his newspaper work with the Pittsburgh Post in 1905. The Democrat and Leader has recently added a thirty-two page Hoe press and other modern machinery and now has one of the best equipped plants in the State.

Mr. Boggs has paid particular attention to the development of foreign advertising for the Democrat and Leader, and with C. I. Putman and A. W. Allen, the paper's foreign representatives in
