A Pastor Pounded.—Rev. W. W. White, the newly appointed pastor of Sassafras and Golt M. E. Churches, arrived in Sassafras about two weeks ago and was accorded a warm reception by his flock. On Wednesday evening last a large number of the members and friends of the church made their way to the parsonage and "pounded" the pastor. Nevertheless he seemed none the worse by his pounding, but he greatly rejoiced in the pounds of good things left behind.

THE entire kennel of fine beagle dogs belonging to Delegate W. Irving Walker, of Queen Anne's county, has been wiped out by an attack of rabies, which killed every animal. It is not known how the disease was contracted. The very fact that the disease is already spreading among canines is a forceful argument for immediate action of commissioners in the various towns of the county to require dogs to be kept under close surveillance.

CHAUTAUQUA CHAT

What is a Chautauqua?

Most of all, it is recreation for busy people.

Recreation without dissipation.

The routine, the humdrum, the everlasting grind of our lives comes because we do not once in a while take time, from our work to think of other things.

When we feel inclined to break away from the routine, there is nothing ready at hand to do, so we either do nothing, or do something foolish. In either case, we fail to get what we most needed.

In the best way, the Chautauqua meets this need. Music, entertainment and lectures are combined in a delightful program.

Popular education,—great inspirational teachers bring special messages.

A community uplift. Under the name of Chautauqua the best elements of the community are united.

Six days of amusement and inspiration for two dollars.

Watch for date of season ticket sale.

Mass as usual at St. John's Church, Rock Hall, Sunday at 10.30 A. M. Confession will be heard before Mass.

There will be no preaching at St. James and Lynch M. P. Churches next Sunday on account of Rev. Mr. Norris being at conference. He will be here to preach on Sunday, 21st, whether he is returned to this charge or not.

There will be no preaching service in the Kennedyville M. P. Church next Sunday as the pastor will be away attending conference. Mr. John Medders, the Sunday School superintendent, wishes a large atttendance at the Sunday School the 21st after conference.

Chestertown M. E. Church, Rev. L. E Barrett, D. D., pastor. Services next Sunday, April 14th, as follows: 10.30 A. M., preaching by the pastor; subject, "Soul Hunger;" 2.15 P. M., Sabbath School and Pastor's Bible Class; 7 P. M., Epworth League song ervice, followed by sermon by pastor. All invited and made welcome.

The Easter services at the M. E. Church last Sunday morning were of an interesting character. The choir, under the leadership of Mrs. Merrick Clements, sang beautifully Easter hymns and music. The Pastor's sermon was from text, "While it was yet dark: Why seek ye the living among the dead." The decorations were unique and tasty. Palms, ferns, lilies and other plants and flowers filled the chancel. On the pulpit platform was a large white cross wreathed with ferns, and from its top a white dove in the attitude of flight. The effect was charming. The whole service was beautiful and impressive.

According to a recent Catholic directory there is a Catholic population in this country totaling 15,015,569. There are 17,491 priests and 13,933 churches. The figures include children non-confirmed.

The Missionary Society of the Chestertown M. E. Church on last Sunday elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, John E. Barnes; vice-president, Herman Blackway; secretary, H. F. Jefferson; treasurer, J. S. Kreeger.

EASTER IN CHURCHES.

The special Easter services in Emmanuel Church, Chestertown, were well attended and good music furnished by the choir, Mrs. Jesse Medders, organist.

A large congregation attended Sacred Heart Church Sunday morning.

Dr. F. T. Little delivered a splendid Easter sermon, followed by music by choir, and duet by Mrs. J. H. Sides and Mrs. Fred G. Usilton. The choir comprised Mrs. Sides, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Usilton, Misses Hope Sappington, Mary Smith, Edith Fallowfield, T. D. Bowers, A. L. Sparks.

Rock Hall M. E. Church held special services Sunday. In the morning Rev J. W. Prettyman preached an interesting and foreeful Easter sermon and the choir rendered extra music. In the evening the missionary anniversay of the Sunday school was celebrated with exercises, the church being prettily trimmed with potted plants for the occasion. The program was as follows: singing by school; scripture responsive reading, prayer by pastor; singing by school; recitation, "Easter Tidings," by Frances Orr; recitation, Myrtle Culley; singing by school; recitation, Clyde Maslin; recitation by two little girls; singing by school; recitation, Lillian Orr; singing by school; recitation, Gladys Culley; recitation, Marvel Ashley; singing by school; recitation, by Edith Moffett; singing, "Evermore," by the school; recitation, "Waking Up The Easter Flowers," by Frances Coburn; recitation, "The Starry Portals," by Bennie Coburn.

CONCERT AT WASHINGTON COLLEGE.

The ninth annual concert of the Glee and Mandolin Club of Washington College will be given at Smith Hall next Thursday night, the 18th, at eight o'clock. The club has worked hard in preparation for the concert and will present the best entertainment ever given by the organization. The development from year to year has enabled the two clubs to prepare selections from the more difficult and better music. Mr. T. Kemp Bordley, '08, himself a former member, has generously given his time to training the Glee Club. Under his directorship the club has made marked progress and will render some delightful vocal selections. The Mandolin Club, under the direction of Dr. Cain, has worked out a programme of much variety and interest and will contribute to the pleasure of the evening in an unusual degree. The proceeds of the concert will be presented to the Athletic Association, in which all friends of the college are so deeply interested. The Glee and Mandolin Club concerts have always been regarded as one of the leading social, as well as musical, events of the season, and it is hoped that a large audience will make this year's concert distinguished and enjoyable.

ROCK HALL NOTES.

For values that are forceful and convincing Max Alexander's big store is the mecca for shoppers these days. He has the finest display and stock of new Spring goods ever. Mr. M. Kramer is also right up-to-date with a new stock.

The 12th anniversary celebration held by the P. O. S. of A. of this place on Thursday evening of last week was a big success. A sumptuous supper under the management of the ladies was served which was followed by dialogues, recitations, songs and a spendid address by Rev. Wm. B. Coleman, of Chestertown. Other gatling guns in the persons of Mr. Wm. A. Burk, of Chestertown, and Rev. J. W. Prettyman were present and booked for addresses, but owing to the lack of time they were deferred for future occasions. Among those participating in the program were Mrs. John Hubbard, Misses Frances Coburn, Ethel Rodney, Master Bennie Coburn, and Mr. Wm. T. Downey. Mr. J. R Diehl was master of ceremonies.

Among those spending Easter with their parents and other friends here were Messrs. True Durding, Willie Durding, J. S. Hindes, and Miss Mildred Durding, Mr. Leroy Boyer.

The wind storms and freshets of last week did a $1,000 or $1,200 damage to the fishermen of this place.

Alas! the Hamanites are squealing already because they didn't get the whole "hog."

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Coburn attended the State Assembly of the Rebekah Lodge in Baltimore last week, Mrs. C. as the representative of the local Lodge of this place.

Mr. Charles Porter, who has been ill for several weeks, is able to be out and about.

Misses Minnie and Birdie Sewell, of the city, are guests of their sister, Mrs. E. P. Kendall, south of town.

STILL POND ITEMS.

Mr. Baynard Harper, of Dover, and Miss Florence Harper, of Baltimore, spent Easter with their mother, Mrs. Lavinia Harper.

Mr. George Hatten, of Philadelphia, is visiting Mr. Wm. G. Rasin.

Misses Jennie and Anna Bowers visited their uncle, Mr. Ben Quimby, Seaford, Del., over Sunday.

Miss Ritta Grey, of A. A. county, spent Sunday with her cousin, Miss Lillias Walter.

Mrs. Lena Atwell is spending sometime with her sister, Mrs. Florence Watson, Newark.

Miss Avis Dodd, of Howard county; Miss Mary Hyland, of Chestertown, and Miss Katie Howard and friend, of Cape Charles, were guests of Mrs. Mary Howard during the week.

Miss Carrie Ford, of Baltimore, visited her brothers, Messrs. Edward and Wilmer Ford, the present week.

Miss Anna Parsons, of Baltimore, spent Sunday with her cousin, Miss Ethel Robinson.

Misses Verma Krusen and Catherine Kevin, of Philadelphia, visited her father, Mr. C. B. Krusen.

Mr. Willis Hackett caught 75 fine shad Tuesday at Harris's wharf. This is the largest catch yet this season.

The pastor and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. F. X. Moore, were given a public reception by the Epworth League Thursday evening in the Sunday School room. A short entertainment was prepared by the fourth vice-president, Mrs Leonard Price, consisting of a welcome address by the president, Mr. William Ford, to Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Moore. Solo, Miss

THE POMONA GRANGE.

The Pomona Grange met at Fairlee Thursday, Mr. Harry Griffith, master, presiding. An able address of welcome was delivered by Worthy Master John P. Nicholson. This address was responded to by Rev. S. S. Hepbron, of Still Pond Grange. The home choir rendered very delightful music. Mrs. George Hatcherson rendered a fine solo. Mr. Warren Hurlock, with his violin, gave considerble eclat. The grange was highly entertained by a recitation by Miss Frances Corey. Mrs. Wm. G. Smyth gave an instructive address on her trip and experience upon her attendance at the course of domestic science at the Maryland Agricultural College.

The question of "Why our Soil does not Produce as it Should" was ably demonstrated by Mr. J. T. Anthony. A very laughable history of merchandise experience of Mr. Wm. G. Smyth, as told by Mr. Stockton Startt in his characteristic humorous manner, was one of the features of the meeting.

An address of unusual interest on "Sanitary Conditions" as demonstrated by the professors at the M. A. C. was delivered by Mrs. A. L. Harris.

A corn contest similar to the one of last year was agreed upon for the coming summer.

Spring Millinery

Easter week was a great week in Millinery. We were all prepared and hence could accommodate the trade.

Many stylish novelties were entirely disposed of—but, Miss Wheatley has been in Philadelphia the first of this week and really it looks like the season has just stared—such is the splendid variety of the fill-in's.

And, too, Millinery was somewhat lower in price at the wholesale houses, and of course, you get your Hat at a lower price on account of this large after-Easter purchase.

Come see for yourself.
