Oxford Chester Co. Pa. Feb. 4th 1859.

Mr. G. W. S. Hall,

Very dear Sir,

I regret not telling you the price of my pamphlets in that hurried note which you received from Phila, but I now inform you that the price of 50 is $5.00 that of 100 $10.00. I thank you for the pamphlet which you sent to me; it needs no commendation from me; I wish it could go into the hands of every intelegent colored man in this Country.

I have ordered 100 copies of my pamphlets to be sent to you; I shall be glad if you take them all, but you will of course use your own pleasure about that. Please let me know if any vessel will sail to Liberia before the first of May.

Yours truly
Armistead Miller

To Mr. Hall.
