Baltimore.

Dear Sir

Will you do us the favor to put up and forward by Express, a package of one or two hundred Copies of your father's very excellent address to the people of color of Maryland? It is a truly capital document, and as there exists in this State a very general disposition of inquiry respecting Liberia, I wish to distribute it among our Colored friends.

The error in reference to the ownership of the Schooner "Rest Benson" occurred in mistaking it for the "Moses Sheppard". Thanks for the word of Correction.

I mailed you, as promised, half a dozen copies of Miller's pamphlet.

Your very resp'y,
Wm Coppinger
