ANNOUNCEMENT!

WE are now ready with our Spring lines and extend all an invitation to come and inspect the various departments.

We're proud of our selections and its pride that makes a fellow want to wear good clothes and its pride that makes us very fussy about the class of clothes we sell.

"Moody & Lusby Clothes" are clothes to be proud of.

We're proud of them and we know you'll be if you wear them. If you take pride in your looks you'll do your purchasing at a shop where pride of quality is a basic principle; one of the most important features upon which our business has been built.

We can fit— BIG MEN LITTLE MEN

We can fit— BIG BOYS LITTLE BOYS and the prices are our usual LOW PRICES, and Merchandise JUST A LITTLE BETTER than the average for such values.

Come inspect the lines, compare qualities and we are willing to abide by the verdict.

MOODY & LUSBY

Personal and Social

Mrs. Annie Taylor, sister of Commissioner W. S. Carroll and Mrs. J. W. Lambert, met with a serious accident last Thursday week in Baltimore. She was getting off a street car when the car started and threw her to the stone street, breaking her arm and otherwise inflicting injuries.

Mrs. L. M. Corey quietly celebrated her 86th birthday Thursday. She drives her own horse, reads the daily papers and attends the Grange meetings regularly. She is certainly a remarkable woman and the NEWS editors extend congratulations.

Mr. J. W. Crew was in the NEWS office this week "just as young as he used to be." He has passed his 87th milestone and is enjoying good health. He has recovered from a spell of sickness during March and takes an active interest in the affairs of the day.

Miss Whitaker, now teaching at Pomona, has been appointed teacher at Golt's.

We are glad to report Mr. John F. Howard as very much imdroved.

Dr. D. L. Greenfield and wife have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Fleming in town.

Messrs. W. F. Malin, John Gale Usilton and Walter T. Bennett were delegates to the Jr. O. U. A. M., Convention in Havre de Grace this week.

Mrs. Geo. E. Lambert is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Harry Vickers, in Baltimore.

Mrs. Mueller and little son, Emil, of Baltimore, are guests of Miss Flora Wheatley.

Mr. Allie Hyland, of Still Pond, will remove his family to Federalsberg where he has purchased a mercantile business. It is with sincere regret we see Mr. Hyland again leave Kent. He is a man of high character, correct business principles and affable manners.

Mr. Massey Hines has secured a position in Baltimore and left this week to enter upon his duties there.

Miss Ethel Ringgold has been appointed teacher of Locust Grove public school in place of Miss Helen Wilkins, resigned.

Mr. Arthur Hyland, of Dover, is spending a few days at home with his mother in Galena.

Mr. Merritt Ford is visiting at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Thomas Irvin, near Barclay.

Mrs. Merritt Ford is visiting her son, Curtis, of near Baltimore.

Mrs. Robert Morgan, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Morgan, of Pennsgrove, returned home last week.

Mr. Edward Peacock, who has been quite sick, is much better at this writing.

Miss Maida Muldoon, of Galena, is spending some time with friends in Baltimore.

Miss Wright, of Preston, has been added to the force of telephone young ladies at the Chestertown Exchange. She is obliging and courteous to everyone and her voice rings clear and cheerful.

Mr. Gorden Faulkner, brother to Mr. Faulkner, of the Voshell House office, has been appointed clerk at the Arlington Hotel, Centreville.

Mr. Samuel T. Caldwell, of Galena, and sister, Mrs. John Dodson, of Worton, were guests of the former's sister-in-law last week, Mrs. Mary E. Saunders, Rock Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Carroll, of Rock Hall, were guests of his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Fowler, Fairlee, on Sunday.

Hon. Jas. S. Harris, of near Betterton has been quite sick, but we are glad to report him much improved now.

Miss Ethel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. B. Porter, of near Tolchester, is visiting relatives in Queen Annes and Talbot counties.

The sons of W. H. Wells, late of Fairlee, are doing finely in New York. Mr. William is manager and part owner of a large nursery in Flushing, N. Y., while Mr. Charles is in the engineering department of the city.

Mr. Samuel B. Armstrong, of Philadelphia, spent part of this week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Armstrong.

Owing to the continued illness of Mrs. J. M. Sheridan she will not be able to move for some days and therefore Dr. Little nor Dr. Graham cannot move just yet. Dr. Little will preach in Christ Church Sunday morning and evening.

Mrs. Thomas Quigley, of near Kennedyville, has returned after spending her Easter with her sons, William and James Quigley, of Philadelphia; also with other relatives and friends in the city.

Miss Laverty, of Morgnec, has also returned from a visit with her sister, Mrs. Boynes, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Lyons, of Ozomtz, Pa., and other relatives and friends in the Quaker City. Having spent a very happy Easter with her friends.

Rev. W. W. White, of Sassafras, will preach in the M. E. Church at Massey on next Sudday, April 21st, at 2.30 p.m. All cordially invited to attend this service.

LOCAL NOTES

THE sale of Denny Hoffecker's big stock has attracted scores of persons from all parts of Kent and many from Queen Anne's. See his big adv. elsewhere in the NEWS. It must all be sold.

Two $1050 Overland automobiles were sold and delivered this week by Mr. J. H. Clendaniel, Jr., the Kent representative of this excellent machine. They were sold to Kent county parties.

THE Faulkner property near Crumpton, has been sold to J. M, Gramberry, of New York, and he is converting it into an up-to-date chicken farm.

WATCH for A. Cohen's new adv. next week.

THE Kent Land Co. has sold to Mr. Carroll Faulkner ten acres adjoining Quaker Neck wharf fronting on Chester river. The new owner will build a home there. The price is reported as $120 per acre.

THE concert given at the College Thursday evening was the best yet. The Mandolin Club deserves special mention for the splendid rendition of good music while the Glee Club showed good training. Mr. Kemp Bordley is worthy of congratulation for his splendid effort and his connection with the Clubs helped very much.

THE dance given in Fairlee Hall last Wednesday evening was a most enjoyable affair.

THE will of Mrs. Helen Comegys was filed for probate Tuesday. John M. Comegys gets $1500 and balance of estate to be divided between John M. and Spencer Comegys.

A SAMPLE of peach twigs from Mr. Thomas G. Wroth's farm, near Smithville, showed a bright prospect for fruit. One three-foot twig had twenty-six live buds on it, and all were healthy and full of buds.

MR. WILLIAM F. MALIN was named as vice-councilor at the State Convention of the Jr. O. U. A. M., held in Havre de Grace this week. This is quite an honor for Chestertown.

ANDREW W. VANSANT, a well-known auctioneer and up-county politician, was committed to jail on Saturday night charged with forgery. It is currently stated that he has issued notes aggregating several thousand dollars upon which the validity of signature is denied. The NEWS may have some interesting disclosures to give the public in connection with this matter. To say the least the events of the week in this case have been very remarkable and gave a number some uneasiness besides Mr. Vansant.

AT a meeting of the Ladies Town Improvement Society held on Monday at the home of Mrs. H. H. Barroll it was decided to change the name of the association to that of "Woman's Civic Club of Chestertown" by which name it will be known in the future. At the same meeting a plan was adopted by which to raise money to obtain cans to be used as receptacles for litter on Main street. The plan is the selling of old paper. Every women in town is requested to attend a public meeting to be held in Stam's Hall next Monday April 22, at 2 30, p. m. Every woman living in town should be interested. Show your interest by your presence, and offer any suggestion you may have. It may be that yours will be better than any now proposed.

AT the last meeting of the directors of the People's Bank Mr. Joseph Downey was elected a director in place of Mr John N. Bennett, resigned.

THE Ladies Aid of Shrewsbury parish has secured the services of the famous "Peak Sisters" of Alaska, for an entertainment to be given by them at Kennedyville in the near future. Watch the NEWS for date.

First Home-Grown Asparagus—The first home-grown asparagus in Chestertown was on sale Wednesday morning by Mr. D. A. Bacchus. It was grown by Mr. George B. Chilcutt on the Usilton farm in Queen Anne's, near Chestertown.

A Rock Hall Industry.—Rock Hall has an industry that gives employment to ladies the year through. This is the wrapper factory which is run by Mendels Brothers. This factory is now very busy and by advertisement elsewhere in the NEWS they want more help. They have secured contracts from some of the largest department stores in the country for their goods and will have to increase the number of their operators. This factory is a considerable help to Rock Hall and vicinity.

Married.—Miss Bertha Biddle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs J. E. C. Biddle, of 809 Monroe street, Wilmington, formerly of Lynch, and Harvey S. Williams, were married Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock at the parsonage of St. Paul's M. E. Church, by the pastor, the Rev. Charles A. Hill. The bride was attended by Miss Elizabeth Cheyney as bridesmaid, and Roy Foster was the best men. Only the members of the two families were present. The bride wore a blue chambray traveling suit, with hat to match, while Miss Cheyney wore a gray tailor-made suit. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Williams left on a wedding trip, and after May 1 they will be at home at 3315 Madison street.
