Dr James Hall
Baltimore.

My Dear Sir.

Yours is received with bill of freight and charges on three boxes from Liberia for several parties in this City. Two of the boxes have been delivered, and although their recipients have not "squatted up" for them, I enclose my check for the full amount, $3.51, in expectation of their doing so. Should they prove unworthy of my confidence, why — I will fall back upon you to refund!

A son of Bishop Burns of Liberia is preparing a history of the early settlers of that Republic, and needs a list of the emigrants sent to Cape Palmas, in 1833, by the Brig "Ann". If you can supply them, please send them to me. I need the names & ages of the people from Pennsylvania who embarked on the "Stevens" on the 12th inst; and would esteem it a favor to receive such a list.

Yours truly & sincerely, Wm Coppinger
