President Benson as asking for any thing but the amount appropriated for their support after being landed.

Whether sent to Liberia in a Ship of war or in the vessel captured, or in our Packet or chartered Vessel, in any case, the Government of Liberia has no interest or concern pecuniarily. So I think.

I sent you yesterday a few copies of our Col. Journal for the M. C. Stevens.

There were errors in the names of the Missionaries to Sierra Leone & instead of D. Rogers it should have been E. P. Rogers for Yoruba.

The Daylight leaves this morning kept here by the East Wind. Visit you and your daughter our dear friend Kate Cecil with Elizabeth a very pleasant time and the greatest benefit to your health. In another letter accompanying this you will find my views of the best form of agreement with Liberia.

Yours truly yours,
J. B. Pinney,
