WILSON OFFERS REAL REMEDIES

He Has Laid Bare Source of Nation's Troubles.

RESENTS SLUR AT TEACHERS.

President of the University of North Carolina Calls Attention to Services Other Educators Have Rendered to the Republic—Opposition to Governor Wilson Comes From the Privileged Interests.

By Dr. FRANCIS P. VENABLE, President of the University of North Carolina.

Some of the politicians have contemptuously dismissed Woodrow Wilson's claims as a statesman and a candidate for the highest office in the gift of his party by speaking of him as "only a schoolteacher."

There are several hundred thousands of teachers in the country, and many of us are proud of the name. We resent the sneering use of it with the implication that because we are teachers we are unfit for other service. I do not feel called upon to debate this point nor think that it is at all necessary. The fling is an altogether unworthy one and shows a regrettable ignorance of the service rendered by teachers in the building of the nation and the part they have played as leaders.

Can we forget the part played by John Witherspoon, another president of Princeton, in securing the independence of our country and in safely launching the young republic, and that a college president, James A. Garfield, was later on president of this republic when it had become the mightiest nation on earth, and that Robert E. Lee thought it no lowering of his dignity nor lesser service to end his life as a college president?

Has Not Lost Hope.

Now, I am not writing as a teacher or college president, but as a citizen, one who has for years thought over the problems which confront us in this great democratic experiment among the nations; one who has been perplexed and fearful of disaster, seeing slight hope in the various expedients which the years have brought forth and finding small comfort in the leaders produced, yet not losing hope. It has been the passion of my life to labor for the uplift of my people.

In Woodrow Wilson I find a man who has analyzed the situation as only a master mind could do. He has pierced to the very center of things as with a surgeon's knife and laid bare the source of the trouble. I know of no other man who has done this or shown the capacity to do it. I know that this is the first and absolutely essential step in the eradication of disease.

Furthermore, he is a resourceful man and not without a remedy. If this is a government by the people then in some way the people must be got to exercise this right of ruling. Knowing that many are ignorant, many weak, many vicious, I realize that this does not mean the immediate ushering in of the millennium, but there is no other hope for Democracy.

I know Governor Wilson to be an honest and fearless man, who, seeing the right, will drive straightly to it without fear or swerving; that he is a foe to all wrong and untruth and injustice and under no bond to any man nor group of men.

I know him as a strong man, who has won decisive victories for the right, relying on himself, the justice of his cause and direct appeal to the people.

I know him as one whose whole life has been searched by those who would do him harm and no fault found that would stamp him as untrue or unworthy.

Reasons For Opposition.

I know him as one bitterly opposed by the seekers for office, the nonprogressives, the privileged interests. These are opposed to him because they believe him to be the man I have described and hold him dangerous where I see in him the hope of the coming of a better day. Of course I do not class with them others who for different reasons find they cannot favor him.

That it is said that he cannot carry this state or that state because of the overwhelming opposition of the privileged interests is no reason for turning from him. We dare not bow to such dictation. The people must arise in their might and enforce their will or there is no hope anywhere of relief.

These are the reasons why I favor Woodrow Wilson for president of the United States.

WILSON CAN CARRY NEW YORK.

(Houston (Tex.) Chronicle.)

Senator O'Gorman of New York, the first genuinely Democratic senator the Empire State has had in a lifetime, says: "I have said to persons who asked my opinion that Governor Wilson would certainly carry New York state in the event of his nomination at Baltimore." The Texas organs of the special interests are telling their readers Wilson won't do because he can't carry New York. Of course they know better than the Democratic senator from New York.

Public Local Law.

Passed by the Maryland Legislature, Session of 1912, and Operative in Kent County, Maryland.

AN ACT to authorize the Commissioners of Betterton to borrow money and to issue bonds for the sum of eight thousand dollars ($8,000.00) for the purpose of providing for and improving the sidewalks, roads and streets and installing a system of sewerage in the town of Betterton, in Kent county, and to appoint a special commission to act and co-operate with the Commissioners of Betterton for the purpose mentioned; provided, that before said loan has been contracted and such bonds issued, the majority of the voters of the taxpayers of said town of Betterton shall assent thereto.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Commissioners of Betterton be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to issue bonds in the name of the Commissioners of Betterton to an amount not exceeding eight thousand dollars ($8,000.00) in sums not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00) to be signed by the Commissioners of Betterton under the corporate seal of the said Commissioners, to be designated as "Betterton Street, Road and Sewerage Bonds," bearing interest at a rate not exceeding five per centum per annum, payable semi-annually on the first day of October and the first day of April of each year, which bonds shall be exempt from all county and municipal taxation and the due or overdue coupons for interest shall be received by the Commissioners of Betterton in payment of town taxes. Said bonds shall be payable in sums of five hundred dollars ($500.00) to each of the years beginning with the tenth day of October, 1922, and each year thereafter until fully paid. Said bonds to be numbered consecutively, and to be redeemed in the order in which they are numbered.

SECTION 2. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners of Betterton are hereby authorized and empowered to do all things necessary for the issue of such bonds, their offering for sale under the legal advertisements, conditions, the providing by levy and collection of a sinking fund for the purpose of meeting the interest on said such bonds and their payment upon maturity, and all other things that may be necessary and proper in the processing of the loan, and the issuance and payment of said bonds.

SECTION 3. And be it enacted, That Howard Turner, John H. Jones and Dr. Arthur P. Emerson and George W. Mann are hereby nominated and appointed a special commission to act and co-operate with the Commissioners of Betterton in the use and expenditure of the fund received from said bond issue for the purpose of providing for and improving the sidewalks, roads and streets and a system of sewerage for Betterton, and the Commissioners of Betterton are hereby authorized to fill any vacancy in said special commission.

SECTION 4. And be it enacted, That a special election to be called by the Commissioners of Betterton at such time as they may think proper, but not later than the next regular election for Commissioners of Betterton, which said election shall in all particulars not herein provided for be held under the supervision and direction of the Commissioners of Betterton, there shall be submitted to the qualified tax-paying voters of Betterton the question whether the said money shall be borrowed and said bonds issued, and at such special election the ballots cast shall have the words "For Street, Roads and Sewerage Bonds" or "Against Street, Roads and Sewerage Bonds" thereon, and if a majority of the votes cast upon the question shall be "For Street, Roads and Sewerage Bonds," then the Commissioners of Betterton, or a majority of them, shall proceed to execute the powers vested in them by this Act; but if the majority of the votes cast shall be "Against Street, Road and Sewerage Bonds," then they shall not execute such powers, and this Act shall be of no effect.

SECTION 5. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 4, 1912.
