Br. Roszel arr. here yesterday, will return to Baltimore & take the letters & papers for Liberia, to spend the six months he needs it, and will feel sure to be ready to go onward to England if he likes.

Mr. Lanselling for Africa these days, will close tomorrow [illegible] Gunpowder & Kegs [illegible] Rum — [illegible] Schr. from Baltimore [illegible]

We squeezed out of the Government [illegible] and [illegible] Brown [illegible] attach to Frank for his [illegible] — [illegible] We are informed that Robinson has another row with his mate, and has again put him off duty.

We are informed by your Father letter, that the President Buren is in the Court for sale, for $500 in place (the figures are indistinct) [illegible] Schr. "Liberia" debts, which is more than they find profitable for.

The Schooner bought by [illegible] Baltimore from Utah is not paid for, one cash only $125 on the price. The Balte Schr. that turned out [illegible] is offered for $500 no purchaser.

Br. Finnie learns that [illegible] "Quail" has been heard from at Sierra Leone, she is repairing damages made by [illegible] English man of war. Our hope is that he may [illegible] return to market [illegible] should he however do so, our fear will [illegible] prove [illegible] he will scarcely be able to get away. — We state this to our determination to fight against any [illegible] attached in an similar manner.
