My dear Sir, do me the favour to send me any papers, pamphlets, reports, statistics, maps or data that may give me the information desired - Any maps showing just the country near or adjacent to Liberia would be acceptable. Especially those showing ~~some~~ a capacity for additional settlements.

The subject of the future condition of the Black man is one in which every American must see long, feel a deep personal interest and at the present crisis in our National policy there is no subject more worthy the attention & study of the statesman, politician or political Economist than the past efforts of the Colonization Society. And it is within the range of a great probability that the foundation laid by a few
