WHEAT IS quoted at $1.20.

GOV. CROTHERS, who is critically ill at his home in Elkton, is reported easier. His physician gives no hope for his recovery.

THE nomination of Hon. J. Harry Covington for Congress by the unanimous voice of the voters is indeed gratifying. Why not make his election also unanimous?

ELWOOD MORRIS is being groomed for the Clerkship. He won his precinct by 1 on Monday. Noble P. Gears in same district says he is a candidate for sheriff. Starting in time, boys. Better wait awhile.

RESULT OF PRIMARIES.

The first Presidential Primary in Kent county was a model of fairness and quietness. Among the Democrats there was a sharp contest for the nomination for Judge and also for delegates to the State Convention. However, the great interest centered in the Constable-Adkins fight. In this the Organization won a great victory and although the state delegates lost by a narrow margin they contributed largely to this success by their activity and personal popularity in bringing out a big vote.

The Organization is delighted with the returns when the short campaign which was waged is considered, the personal popularity of Judges Adkins and Hopper and the fight made by Mr. Carroll and his followers.

There were over 1900 votes cast which was within a hundred of number cast in primaries of 1909.

Capt. Curtis E. Crane lead his ticket with 925 votes with Herman B. Massey a close second with 897 votes and J. Carroll Wilson with 896 votes, all won without any other means than that of personal popularity. Their friends are sorry they lost but when the duty of a delegate is considered the honor is not so great after all.

The men elected are Charles W. Kibler whose big vote of 1046 speaks well of him, Harry Davis 947 and Jeff. D. Ayres 924, also a fine vote. These men are pledged to vote for Wilson first, last and all the time!

Among the Republicans the fight was red hot and John D. Urie, Esq., came out victorious just as was predicted in the News last week. He was the recognized leader of the Governor's state organization and pulled through a victory of 74 for Taft, thus gaining a personal victory over his colleague on the State Central Committee, Sidney P. Townshend, Esq., who championed the cause of Col. Roosevelt. Mr. Townshend himself was defeated for delegate by only 18 votes. The latter claims that his defeat was accomplished by Mr. Urie's promises to the colored voters to use influence as school commissioner to secure additional school appropriations for the colored schools. Of course there had to be some excuses and the above sounds good, anyway.

One of the colored voters in town when asked to what party he belonged replied, "Mr. Urie's." Another one at Pomona said he was going to vote Mr. Roosevelt because "he had killed a lion and Bryan, and Taft had not shot anything."

A WRITER in the Sun from Chestertown entitled "Peace," sends the following excellent suggestion:

SIR.—In today's issue of your paper I read "The Lessons of the Titantic Disaster," and while the horrors of the tragedy are before me it is meet to heed the lessons of the hour in the name of humanity. The many valuable suggestions in your article are timely for the proper valuation of human lives and for necessary safeguards in preserving them, but since the ill-fated steamer needlessly went down with its cargo of precious souls, another suggestion has haunted my thoughts until your article impels its utterance.

The disaster of the Titantic, compared with the horrors of war in which nations deliberately engage and call it glorious, becomes one of the questions of the hour. It is fitting that Congress should investigate the causes of cruel death and lend its aid to prevent a repetition of like calamities, but that at the same time it is building death-dealing ships to strew the seas with their victims savors of strange inconsistency, so that many hearts are crying out, "Is there no better way to right wrongs or avoid them than at the cannon's mouth?"

To know danger only for a little while before the waters closed over the victims of the Titanic is unlike the fearful carnage of battlefields, with the various sufferings that many endure, not for a day only but through weeks and months of physical pain and mental anguish.

Oh, for the peace in human hearts that shall make "right instead of might" prevail and subdue the glory of

THE 10-hour per day law for women in factories and stores went into effect last Wednesday week. Jefferson & Bro. have decided to close every night except Saturday at 8 o'clock so as to comply with law.

THE action of the Kent County School Board Tuesday as noted elsewhere is to be commended. It is an instance so seldom noted where merit wins over political considerations. Inasmuch as Prof. Melvin could not be reappointed the public are glad to have such a name as Prof. Smyth in his place. In Mr. Ahern as President the county has a faithful, able and conscientious official.

CLARK AND ROOSEVELT CARRY THE STATE

Wilson Gets a Fine Vote in Kent and Other Eastern Shore Counties

A GREAT VICTORY FOR CONSTABLE

Speaker Champ Clark has captured a large majority of the delegates to the Democratic State Convention, which will meet on May 16, and which will elect 16 delegates to the National Convention. He won the State by over 12,000 majority.

Clark carried all of Baltimore city and all of the counties which Senator Arthur P. Gorman carried in the late Gubernatorial primary, with the exception of Anne Arundel, Kent and Wicomico counties. Wilson carried these counties, but lost Montgomery, Queen Anne and Carroll counties, which practically ended any hope of the New Jersey man being able to carry the convention.

All of the Eastern Shore, with the exception of Queen Anne's and Worcester counties, went for Wilson. United States Senator John Walter Smith, who has taken no part in the contest, swung his county for Harmon, who has always been his personal choice for the place. This was the only election unit in the State which Harmon carried.

The most surprising results of the primary in the counties were in Montgomery county, where Senator Blair Lee lost his home county, and in Wicomico, where Senator Jesse Price was defeated by the Wilson people.

Col. Theodore Roosevelt will get the 16 votes of Maryland in the Republican National Convention. With the city and State organizations against him, he defeated them both by a close margin and won out by over 4,000.

He will have 66 votes in the State Convention, just a bare vote over the 65 which constitute a majority of the 129 votes in the State Convention. President Taft will have 63 votes, and a further analysis of the returns may show that he may have sufficient friends among the delegates to control the personel of the Maryland delegation. This will be important if Roosevelt cannot be nominated on the first ballot, as the State Republican leaders will then be able to throw them to Taft on subsequent ballots.

Roosevelt carried only seven counties outside of Baltimore city. These were Allegany, Garrett, Washington, Frederick, Prince George's, Howard and Baltimore county.
