ANNOUNCEMENT!

WE are now ready with our Spring lines and extend all an invitation to come and inspect the various departments.

We're proud of our selections and its pride that makes a fellow want to wear good clothes and its pride that makes us very fussy about the class of clothes we sell.

"Moody & Lusby Clothes" are clothes to be proud of.

We're proud of them and we know you'll be if you wear them. If you take pride in your looks you'll do your purchasing at a shop where pride of quality is a basic principle: one of the most important features upon which our business has been built.

We can fit— BIG MEN LITTLE MEN

We can fit— BIG BOYS LITTLE BOYS

and the prices are our usual LOW PRICES, and Merchandise JUST A LITTLE BETTER than the average for such values.

Come inspect the lines, compare qualities and we are willing to abide by the verdict.

Rev. Dr. J. S. Bowers and wife were presented with a handsome solid silver service of the Stieff pattern by the members and friends of Alnutt Memorial M. P. Church, Baltimore, last week. The gift was a token of the love and esteem of a loving congregation.

Rodney, Mr. and Mrs. Romie Fogwell, Misses Ida L. Mason, Lizzie Toulson, Pearl G. Rodney, Rose C. Fogwell, Edith N. Rodney, Messrs. Hope Dill, Wilham Miller, Milton Fogwell, Arthur Mason, Walter Biggers.

GRANGE NOTES.

Well, another good meeting! And we expect still another next week. Bring your note books as Mrs. A. L. Harris is going to give another of her Domestic Science talks and as there were some things which you wanted to copy last time you had better be prepared this time. At 2.30 p. m. we have the business meeting and at 3.30 the public is invited to hear the talk. Perhaps we will have some special music too, if some of our friends will help us.

After much talk undecided last week that a good library for our mental good and a good road for our physical good were the most needed things in this community, and when you realize the fact that your oldest members as far as age goes, walks nearly 7 miles rather than miss a grange meeting when his horses are all at work, you can well understand why we advocate good roads for good grangers. Why Grangers don't you know that hiking parties are fashionable among the rich? Why not let the poor farmer have some of the pleasures and benefits that our rich citizens enjoy. Competent guides will be furnished free on request.

Our old friend Mrs. Hazel K. Bornschein will be with us on May 20th, at 8 p. m. Come out and say how-do-you-do!

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad but loving remembrance of JOHN A. CUPPER, who departed this life four years ago, May 8th, 1908.

My dear boy, how I miss you,
Miss you more than tongue can tell,
Every hour and day that passes
Brings me nearer with you to dwell.
MOTHER.

Though not dead, what a beautiful thought,
To cheer us through life's dreary way;
Not dead, but blooming into life
Where there is eternal day.
WIFE.

In sad but loving remembrance of my dear husband, JOHN W. EGGEN, who died one month ago to-day, May 11, 1912.

I often sit and think of you
When I am all alone;
For memory is the only friend
That grief can call its own
Husband, I am so sad and lonely
Since you have gone from me;
And it seems there is no pleasure
In this dreary world for me.
BELOVED WIFE.

Farewell, dear father, is an awful word,
Which pierces to my heart;
But, oh, it is the will of God
Our dearest ones must part.
SON HERBERT W.

As the evening sun is setting,
Oftimes as I sit alone,
In my heart there comes a feeling
If my dear father could only come home.
DAUGHTER ELMA E.

Father, little did I know
When I left you the night before,
That God would call you so soon,
And I would never see you alive on earth any more.
Father, you were called away so sudden,
Without time to say good bye;
But we know your though s were of us
When you were asked to die.
DEVOTED DAUGHTER IVA.

A YOUNG LADY in town out of the goodness of her heart agreed to buy a gas stove if her mother would pay for digging and installing the pipe. The joke was enjoyed when the Company stated that they installed the gas where a stove was purchased.

THAT strawberry growers have at last discovered a remedy for the elimination of weeds and grass from their patches without a gang of men with hoes now seems certain. The remedy is simple. Two geese fenced in a five-acre berry patch, it is claimed, will pick and destroy every weed and piece of grass that grows. The fowls do not relish berry vines, therefore will not destroy them. They have a mania for young tender weeds, and to see the geese pluck weeds and grass from the vines is worth while. Geese are inclined to be lazy, and two much corn will cause them to set around, when they should be at work pulling weeds. Mr. Thos. L. Day says berry growers around Bridgeville have been using geese for the above purpose for years, and not only find them first-class weed pullers, but recommends them to every grower of berries.

W. C. TRAVERS, representing the State Horticultural Department of the M. A. C., has been in Kent and Queen Anne's counties this week conducting demonstration sprayings for the control of insects and fungus diseases detrimental to fruit growing. These demonstrations have been well attended and proved both instructive and beneficial to the fruit grower. The Horticultural Department is always willing and glad to give the fruit growers of the State any information desired.

Sudlersville has a number of new cars as follows: James Merrick, Jr., Dudley G. Roe, John W. Seney, Dr. W. W. Bowen, and Joseph M. George, all Fords; Dr. Foster Sudler, Charles L. Joslin, William R. Wilson, John E. George, all Everetts.

The firm of Graham & Clements has sold and delivered five fine Buick cars this season. The purchasers are Messrs. Perry and Dr. Dudley, of Queen Annes, Dr. H. G. Simpers, S. Scott Beck and Claude Parks, of Kent. They have several other prospects of sale.

Herman B. Massey has sold to Mr. Grover Hadaway a Buick car.

J. H. Sides, agent for the Maxwell, has made several sales for early delivery.

John N. Bennett is the first farmer in Kent to put the auto wagon to a practical use. He has purchased of Turner & Son an auto wagon in which he will haul milk to town and use it for hauling generally. This machine is made by the International Harvesting Co., and sells for about $1,000.

GOOD READING.

The noted book entitled "THE PARSON OF THE ISLANDS," has been put on sale at Toulson's Drug Store, Chestertown, at 75c each. It is a biography of the Rev. Joshua Thomas embracing sketches of his contemporaries and remarkable camp-meeting scenes on the islands of the Chesapeake and the Eastern Shore, by Adam Wallace. It is certainly an interesting book and cheap. m30-4t
