Dear Sir,

Your favor of Yesterday is at hand; it will give us great pleasure to further your views in regard to the Cotton Seed, and we will write at once to Capt McPorter to see if he can get it collected, & if so, will have it sent to New York, by one of the transport returning, on first opportunity: we can see no objection to its being procured, & persuade ourselves it will strike the Captain in the same view; we will address you when we hear from him in reply.

Very Respectfully
Your Obt Servts
