MILLINGTON ITEMS.

Rev. J. Wilson Sutton, of New York, spent Wednesday of last week with friends in town.

Those on the sick list are: Mrs. Annie Price, Mrs. J. B. W. Aydelotte, Mrs. Herman Hendrix and Mrs. Sarah Jane Wilson. Mrs. W. J. Toulson is still not much improved.

Miss Willie Moffett spent a couple of days this week in Philadelphia and Wilmington.

Mother's Day will be observed by Asbury M. E. Sunday School tomorrow evening, May 12th. Everybody is invited to be present.

Miss Lola Engram, of Middletown, Del., was the guest at Central Hotel last week.

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies Aid Society of Asbury M. E. Church met on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. John W. Higman.

Mrs. Francis E. Fitch, of New York, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Ahern.

Mr. W. F. Hobbs and family spent a couple of days last week with his mother-in-law, Mrs. Lydia Jester, of near McFadden's Mill.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Johnson, who have been living at Unicorn Mills for sometime have moved to a place near Philadelphia.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society of the M. E. Church met in Millington, Thursday May 2nd, in the interest of the Easton District. Smyrna, Middletown and Wilmington were all represented. The day was spent in a profitable manner. The Conference officers urged greater zeal in the work in the coming year.

There were two sessions held, one in the morning and one in the afternoon. Mrs. N. M. Brown and Mrs. H. S. Thompson had charge of the devotional part of the meetings. We were greatly entertained during the morning session by music which was furnished by Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Price and Mrs. Parry, of Smyrna, Del. At the close of the day we all felt encouraged to greater zeal for the coming year and hope those churches with no active Woman's Home Missionary work will awaken to the need. Luncheon was served to about seventy in the basement of the church. The church was appropriately decorated with flags and flowers.

Mr. F. C. Numbers spent Saturday and Sunday in Philadelphia and also in Trainer, Pa.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary Society will be held on Thursday evening, May 16th, at the home of Mrs. R. J. Taylor.

STILL POND ITEMS.

Don't forget the school entertainment Wednesday evening May 15th, in Harpers Hall. Adults 25c, children under 15 years, 15 cents.

The Epworth League Social held at Mrs. Wm. B. Price's last Thursday evening was well attended and all spent a delightful evening. We always have a nice time at Mrs. Price's.

Sunday, May 12th, will be Mother's Day and our Sunday School will take pleasure in welcoming the mothers of our town and community. Mothers make an effort to be present and bring the children and let us all worship together on that day. At the close of the school each scholar and visitor will be presented with a souvenir in remembrance of the day. Our pastor, Rev. F. X. Moore will preach a special sermon and all are especially invited to attend preaching service. Bro. Moore is an earnest and active worker and is doing his best to bring the church up to its high standard. The installation of the officers of the Epworth League will be held Sunday evening before preaching.

CONSTABLE WINS EASILY

Carries Second Judicial Circuit By 1,926 Majority—Will Have No Opposition.

State's Attorney Albert Constable, of Cecil, won a sweeping victory at the Democratic primaries for chief judge of the Second Judicial Circuit, defeating Judge W. H. Adkins, of Talbot, by 1,926 majority.

The majorities in the circuit were:

For Constable—
Cecil	1,776
Kent	154
Queen Anne's	987
Total	2,897
For Adkins—
Talbot	889
Caroline	82
Total	971

The nomination of Mr. Constable is equivalent to an election, as the Republicans have made no nomination. Mr. Constable will succeed Chief Judge James Alfred Pearce, of Kent county.

The friends of Mr. Constable are highly elated over his vote and especially in his home county, where only 71 votes were cast against him. In Talbot he received 280 votes. Judge Adkins was among the first to wire Mr. Constable congratulations.

ROCK HALL NOTES.

Hurrah for Maryland and Clark and Constable, too. Never had the "dear people" of this section closer attention than they had on Monday. Automobiles were at their disposal all day free rides were on tap, but next day we had to plod afoot through rain and mud to get the news.

On Saturday last this town had a hot municipal contest all her own. About 30 participated in the fight. When the ballots were counted some surprise was manifest. The result showed the election of Messrs. Henry Urie, Max Alexander, Joseph Downey, Wm. I. Ashley and Fred Williams as Councilmen for the next 12 months.

People from all parts of the county flocked into this town on Saturday night. Politics, amusement resorts and first-class shopping circles being the attractions.

Mr. A. Alexander has been considerably indisposed and under the care of Dr. Beale for the past two weeks.

Mrs. J. W. Boyer, of the city, has been a visitor at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. H. Harrison and other relatives the past week.

The rains of Monday night and Tuesday has knocked into smithereens the operations of our farmers and truckers setting them back a week or more.

Mr. Wm. Leary, a victim of appendicitis, was taken to the hospital on Tuesday. He was operated on and is doing fairly well.

Mrs. B. H. Coburn, who has been under treatment in the hospital during the past month, returned to her home here on Thursday.

A marriage license was issued this week to William T. Urie, 40, Rock Hall, and Mary. A Ayres, 27.

At the public sale of the two farms of the late Dr. James B. Crawford, in front of the Middletown Hotel, Tuesday, offered singly at first, the "Timmons place" containing about 195 acres was bid up to $10.50 per acre and the "Marvel place," containing about 240 acres was bid up $15.00 per acre, but was offered together afterwards and was knocked down to Mr. Edward Hart for the sum of $5,580.00, an advance of about $200 on the two tracts when offered singly. It is understood that Mr. Walter E. Hart was the purchaser of the Marvel Place," and Mr. Charles H. Todd, the "Timmons place," both gentlemen being residents of Townsend,
