Corn Planters

"BLACK HAWK"

have been used with unusual satisfaction by a great many of our customers for years. They have given us less trouble than any machine we have ever sold. There is not a more accurate dropper on the market. We know this is a broad assertion, but statistics prove it to be true. Ask the man who has one. Its many strong features will gladly be shown if you will visit our store.

Don't fail to see it before you buy a Planter.

KENT COUNTY IN THE FRONT

The Kent County Medical Conference Will Meet Here Tuesday and Wednesday —We Are the First County in the United States to Take Up This Great Work.

Chestertown is now honored by taking the lead in a campaign which is one of the most important for years. This movement, which was first international, has been taken up by each country on the map and applied with more or less force. Kent county is now selected as the mother of this movement within the State and we hope will keep up her recordiby showing up bravely.

This conference takes place on Tuesday and Wednesday, May 21 and 22, in Stam's Hall, and lectures will be given by men of national distinction in their respective callings.

We hope nothing will prevent a good attendance and feel positive each and every one will take home with him something valuable.

The programme follows:

TUESDAY, 8 P. M.

The Relation of the Fly and Other Insects to Disease. Illustrated. Dr. Wm. Royal Stokes, State and City Bacteriologist.

Impure Milk as a Cause of Disease. Illustrated. Dr. Mary Sherwood.

Moving pictures between addresses.

WEDNESDAY, 3 P. M.

Preventive of Tuberculosis.....H. Wirt Steele.

How To Keep the Babies Well. Dr. Wm. Royal Stokes, State and City Bacteriologist.

WEDNESDAY, 8 P. M.

The Importance of Pure Water Supplies for Towns and County Districts. Ezra Whipman, Water Engineer of Baltimore. Illustrated.

Sanitary Sewage Disposal for Rural Districts. Passed Assistant Surgeon L. L. Lumsden, Public Health and Marine Hospital Service.

Moving pictures between addresses.

A BOLD DEED!

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter T. Pippin, on Washington avenue, was entered at eleven o'clock Thursday night by a thief, but owing to the bravery of Mrs. Pippin the attempt was unsuccessful. The thief entered the back room where Mr. Pippin was asleep, took his pants from a chair near his bed, walked through the middle room where the boys were asleep, and was going down the front stairs, dragging the trousers. Mrs. Pippin was in the front room awake and saw the thief's shadow. She got up, went to the bureau and got a pistol, and yelled to the thief, "drop them," and at the same time called Mr. Pippin! Mr. Pippin came promptly and saw his wife, with pistol in hand, pointing down the stairs. He realized at once what had happened, but his wife assured him that the money was safe. The thief had dropped the pants and made his escape out the open front door.

Mr. Pippin drew about $100 from bank Thursday in order to pay his men and during the evening had counted the money in public on his dinning-room table and before retiring placed his money in his pants pocket. He went to bed at 10 o'clock and the thief was going down stairs as the clock struck eleven. Mrs. Pippin's wonderful presence of mind and nerve saved the money. A warm reception will be given the next one.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

GEORGE T. HUDSON.

After patient suffering for many weeks, George T. Hudson, one of Kent's best known citizens, died at his home on "Flatlands" Friday morning at 5 o'clock, aged 57. The deceased had been farming all his life, having started near Fairlee, then removing to W. G. Skirven's Worton Point farm, and finally buying the farm where he died. He has been economical and industrious and brought his farm up to a high state of cultivation. He was an indulgent father, a devoted husband, a kind neighbor and a good citizen. His fellowmen liked Geo. T. Hudson, and his faithfulness and allegiance to his friends was remarkable. He was a Democrat in politics, but never held but one public position, that of President to Trustees of Almshouse. He leaves a daughter, Mrs. Mahlon Lee, by his first wife; his second wife, who was Miss Edith Anderson, of Baltimore, and son, Raymond, and three brothers, John, W. K. and Edward E.

The funeral will take place Sunday at 2 p. m. at his late home, interment in Chester cemetery, Rev. G. A. Morris, officiating; C. L. Dodd, undertaker. The bearers will be Messrs. Thomas J. Davis, Jesse H. Usilton, Linwood Sutton, J. E. Morris, Wm. T. Nicholson, Jesse H. Copper.

CLARK TAYLOR.

Mr. Clark Taylor, a highly respected and well-known citizen of Kent county, died at the home of Mr. Dulaney, his brother-in-law, in Centreville on Monday. The decease was 92 years old and had enjoyed fair health. He spent his winters in Centreville and the balance of the year with his son, near St. Paul's Church. He was for many years teacher in the public schools of Kent county but most of his life he has been a farmer and a pianist. He shipped hundreds of pounds of honey yearly. He was a Democrat in politics and an ardent lover of the South. He leaves a widow and two sons, Mr. Benj. I. Taylor, of Kent, and Dr. Wm. Taylor, of Laurel, Md. The funeral took place Wednesday, interment in St. Paul's cemetery, Dr. Sharpe and Rev. S. S. Hepbron officiating. The bearers were Messrs. Lecompt, Jas. Bell, Geo. Beck, Chas. M. Brown, F. W. Smith, I. R. Leaverton.

ALEXANDER MAXWELL.

Alexander Maxwell was stricken with paralysis at his home in Middletown, Del., shortly after he had eaten his dinner on Wednesday, and died about 5 o'clock. Mr. Maxwell, who was 65 years old, was one of the most widely known men of Middletown, and was for years proprietor of the Middletown Hotel. His first wife died several years ago, and about three years ago he married Miss Elizabeth Thompson, of Baltimore who survives him. Mr. Maxwell is also survived by one son, Jacob B. C. W. Maxwell, who resides in Philadelphia, Pa.

CAPT. JAMES N. MCCULLOUGH.

Capt. Jas. N. McCullough, of Port Deposit, fell dead from apoplexy Wednesday in the office of the Tolchester Steamboat Company. Capt. McCullough was the largest holder of stock of the Tolchester Company and a director of the National Bank of Port Deposit. Born in Port Deposit, his entire life of 80 years was spent along the shores of the Susquehanna. He is survived by one sister (Mrs. Jacob Buschenhart) and one daughter (Mrs. George M. Campbell). His estate is valued at $70,000.

LEVI CLOUGH.

Levi Clough, a prominent farmer of near Church Hill, died Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock of appoplexy after an illness of about two weeks. Mr. Clough was a son of the late Noah Clough and was born in Queen Annes county. He was 66 years old. Mr. Clough was joined in marriage early in life to Miss Jennie Crane, daughter of Major Crane, of Church Hill. Besides his wife, he is survived by three daughters, Misses Mary, Mabel and Adelaide Clough, all of whom reside in Church Hill.

JOHN REESE BOON.

John Reese Boon, son of the late Col. James and Charlotte Smith Boon, died at the home of his wife's brother, 707 N. Graham St., Charlotte, N. C., Tuesday, May 7th, after an illness of four years.

The deceased was born at the old Boon home, Georgetown, Kent county, and was the last of the family. Well-known and loved throughout the county, his father died while Reese was young and the family moved to Baltimore where he lived until three years ago when he went South hoping it would benefit him. On March 31, 1908, he was stricken with heart trouble and has been a sufferer ever since. On May 3 he had a stroke of paralysis and passed away on May 7. He is survived by his wife, two nephews, J. T. Armstrong, of Baltimore, Percy Vickers, of Vincennes, Ind., one niece Mrs. Lottie Vickers, of Chicago. The passing of this kind genial man leaves a large circle of mourning friends in Kent county, Baltimore and Charlotte, N. C. Interment at Charlotte, N. C.

Wedded—A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Redgrave, in Middletown, Wednesday, when Miss Emma L. Redgrave, of Philadelphia, was united in marriage to John S. Lynch, of Philadelphia, by Elder B. F. Coulter, D. D., Baptist minister of the same city. The bridesmaid was Miss Carrie Roe, of Massey, Md., and Roe S. Redgrave, brother of the bride, acted as best man. Miss Mildred Redgrave, a niece, played the wedding march. The bride was gowned in white silk with pearl and lace trimmings. The bridesmaid's gown was pink silk mull with white lace. Only the immediate family and a few intimate friends were present.

A Splendid Showing—At the annual meeting of the Kent Mutual Fire Insurance Company of this county, held in Chestertown Monday, the following officers and directors were elected:

President—Thomas W. Ellison.
Secretary and Treasurer—George E. Westcott.
Directors—Messrs. Ellison, Westcott, Alday Clements, Edwin S. Valliant, James A. Casey, James H. Baker, Samuel Vannort, Jefferson D. Baccaus, Edw. W. Emory, Fred. G. Usilton, R. G. Nicholson, Lemuel C. Meginniss.

The affairs of the company were found to be in excellent shape and the losses for the year very small. The President's report was heard and ordered spread upon the minutes with the thanks and hearty commendation of the directors.
