HAPPY THO' MARRIED?

There are unhappy married lives, but a large percentage of these unhappy homes are due to the illness of the wife, mother or daughter. The feelings of nervousness, the befogged mind, the ill-temper, the pale and wrinkled face, hollow and circled eyes, result most often from those disorders peculiar to women. For the woman to be happy and good-looking she must naturally have good health. Dragging-down feelings, hysteria, hot-flashes or constantly returning pains and aches—are too great a drain upon a woman's vitality and strength. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription restores weak and sick women to sound health by regulating and correcting the local disorders which are generally responsible for the above distressing symptoms.

MRS. DICKOVER.

"I suffered greatly for a number of years and for the past three years was so bad that life was a misery to me," writes MRS. B. F. DICKOVER, of Utica, Ohio, Route 4. "The doctors told me I would have to go to a hospital before I would ever be better. A year ago this winter and spring I was worse than ever before. At each period I suffered like one in torment. I am the mother of six children. I was so bad for five months that I knew something must be done, so I wrote to Dr. R. V. Pierce, telling him as nearly as I could how I suffered. He outlined a course of treatment which I followed to the letter. I took two bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and one of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and a fifty-cent bottle of 'Smart-Weed,' and have never suffered much since. I wish I could tell every suffering woman the world over what a boon Dr. Pierce's medicines are. There is no use wasting time and money doctoring with anything else or any one else."

The Medical Adviser by R. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y., answers hosts of delicate questions about which every woman, single or married ought to know. Sent free on receipt of 31 stamps to pay for wrapping and mailing only.

SMART SUMMER STYLES

Bordered Voiles, Robes and Tissues —Dainty Creations For Many Occasions—Summer Coats.

The dainty fussy summer frocks in which most women delight are especially pretty this season. Pannier lines have brought out the flowered designs in the materials to be made up after the new old fashion. New because the 1912 pannier clings closely to the figure, extends well down toward the foot of the skirt, and adds not a whit to the expanse at the hips, so you see it is really a novelty in its class and likely to be much more generally becoming than the old Watteau style.

SILK AND COTTON.

Silk and cotton combination are a feature of the new models. Very many are half of silk, for the under dress will be of Summer taffeta in white, with a narrow panel front edged with narrow pleated ruchings and ornamented with stuffed roses of the silk. Over this is draped, pannier fashion soft mull printed in a wide border of pink roses, waist of the same finished with a wide collar of white tucked (mull edged) with a ruffle of Valenciennes lace. The belt of black ribbon velvet closed in front with cameo buckle. Bordered materials in floral designs lend themselves very well to pannier drapings and combinations of color are a feature of such gowns, and such patterns come out best over a white petticoat as a rule. Often the hem at the foot and belt will be in matching silk or velvet in complete contrast to the colors in the border, but there is no rule for these contrasts.

The above designs are by The McCall Company, New York, Designers and Makers of McCall Patterns.

SPRIGGED MUSLINS.

Sprigged muslins and other old timey patterns in mull and organdie and the various silk and cotton tissues are all in course of making for warm summer days. Almost all have draperies, and many are made with plain narrow underskirts of no greater width than prevailed last year, but the draperies and trimmings now used completely change the effect, though none of these are all bouffant—in fact a tape with lead—shot is often used to hold the draperies down close to the figure.

SUMMER COATS.

For the long dust coat that completely covers a dainty gown many stylish models are shown in rough pongee silks, serges and the ubiquitous taffetas in plain and changeable tints.

Some of the handsomest have long collars and cuffs of Macrame lace which is admirably suited for such trimmings. Smart wraps of the Turkish towellings that go under many different names are prettiest and most practical in ecru tints.
