DID the Barroll delegates stick to Wilson, first, last and all the time?

THE law against public drinking cups is in force and now not even the "old oaken bucket" can be used.

THE Wilson leaders in Baltimore are charging that they could not get Mr Barroll's delegates to a conference with them.

COL. W. J. VANNORT, of Chestertown, was elected an alternate delegate to the Republican National Convention. This is a high honor for the Colonel.

A DRASTIC measure, declaring that no man who uses tobacco in any form is eligible to election to any office in the gift of the conference, was passed by a three-fourths vote of the General Conference of the M. E. Church at Minneapolis last Wednesday.

MR. BARROLL'S delegates to Baltimore were offered to the "Royal Family" in Baltimore, Wednesday night, who had prepared a "slate" for the State. This "slate" ignored Congressman Covington, Fred. Talbott and other good Democrats and placed men thereof acceptable to Mahon and Kelley! When Senator Smith and his friends arrived the "slate" was broken and the delegates named elsewhere elected.

THE Queenstown News says: Hon. J. Albert Constable, of Elkton, Cecil county, was nominated for chief judge of the Second Judicial Circuit by a majority of over 1500. He carried Queen Anne's county by 987, Kent by 128 and Cecil by about 1,200. Judge Adkins carried Caroline by 82 and Talbot by 880. The large majority in Queen Anne's is due to a great extent to the support and arduous labors of Hon. J. H. C. Legg, of Centreville. All the other lawyers, excepting Richard Earle, favored Judge Adkins but the people were with Mr. Legg. Practical politicians and others say that Constable's victory here was a personal triumph for Mr. Legg.

THE grand jury went into session Tuesday morning and was discharged Wednesday evening. This is the shortest session ever known in Queen Anne's county and is due to a business man—Mr. Walter T. Wright, the foreman. He not only saved the taxpayer hundreds of dollars but received the thanks of all the farmers as they were able to remain at home and superintend their work. Until a few sessions ago, former grand juries have been a long-drawn-out session, lasting from seven to ten days.

LOCATED IN DORCHESTER.

Plans for the establishment of the Eastern Shore State Hospital, the institution for the insane authorized by the last Legislature, are being made. Organization was effected by the election of Governor Goldsborough president and Senator Dosley, of Dorchester county, secretary and treasurer.

A committee on site and buildings was appointed, as follows: The Governor, Comptroller Harrington, W. T. Kerbin, Senators Austin, Harper and Beck and Dr. Hugh H. Young. This committee was authorized to build the institution in Dorchester county and to select an architect to prepare the plans for the buildings.

Dr. Charles J. Carey, first assistant at the Springfield Hospital, was elected superintendent. He is a brother of Mr. W. Lee Carey. It is said the location will be near Hurlock.

The increased cost of manufacture is said to be the reason for the advance.
