ANNOUNCEMENT!

WE are now ready with our Spring lines and extend all an invitation to come and inspect the various departments.

We're proud of our selections and its pride that makes a fellow want to wear good clothes and its pride that makes us very fussy about the class of clothes we sell.

"Moody & Lusby Clothes" are clothes to be proud of.

We're proud of them and we know you'll be if you wear them. If you take pride in your looks you'll do your purchasing at a shop where pride of quality is a basic principle: one of the most important features upon which our business has been built.

We can fit— BIG MEN LITTLE MEN and the prices are our usual LOW PRICES, and Merchandise JUST A LITTLE BETTER than the average for such values.

We can fit— BIG BOYS LITTLE BOYS

Come inspect the lines, compare qualities and we are willing to abide by the verdict.

MOODY & LUSBY

Directly Opposite Court House

Chestertown, - - Maryland

LOCAL NOTES

THE prettiest tree in town is a dogwood tree in full bloom in Mr. H. L. Boyd's yard on Mill street.

THE County Commissioners Tuesday appointed Mr. Frank Wheat as constable for the Fifth district of Kent county.

THE Reaves property in Worton, near Melitota, has been sold by W. W. Beck, mortgagee, to Robert Graves for $312.

"FROGGY" JOHNSON, colored, a well-known former citizen of Chestertown, died on a farm near Dover Saturday of pleurisy.

THERE will be several fine farms offered at public sale in Chestertown next Tuesday. See the NEWS columns for full descriptions.

THE new wagon at Topping's mill was made by Davis & Satterfield, and with its driver, John, and black horse, is hard to beat.

THE Y. M. C. A. of Washington College will give two plays in Stam's Hall next Thursday evening. They will be worth seeing.

THE Hendrickson farm near town was offered at public sale Tuesday and held up on a bid of $12,000, made by Mr. George D. Lonand.

A COW kicked Mr. Charles Hodgkins Tuesday morning, while he was milking, such a crack on his hand that he sold the animal at once.

THE recent rains have been fine on grass and wheat. Mr. schauber, who serves a milk route in Chestertown, says he got 65 gallons of milk from his herd Wednesday.

IT is reported that Mr. Ollie Estes will succeed Mr. Conlyn Noland as deputy treasurer under the new treasurer, Mr. C. S. Hurlock. There were a number of applicants.

THE Andrew Vansant sale of personalty Monday, advertised in the NEWS by Harry S. Dempsey, was one of the best ever held in Kent. The total sales amounted to $1350.

J. F. SHRIVER, one of the oldest residents in Quaker Neck, says, "the prospect is fine for fruit and if the buds are not injured within the next few days a rich harvest will be gathered.

J. T. BRIGHT, attorney for owner, has sold the Hurlock home on Broadway, Centreville, which was damaged by several mysterious fires some months ago, to Mr. S. Earle Feddeman, of Centreville. The price paid was $2910.

THIS office is in receipt of copy of the Anti-Saloon League Year Book for 1912. Like its predecessor it is a big book of 256 pages of carefully selected, up-to-date material respecting all phases of the Anti Saloon League, Baltimore, and sell for 35 cents.

THE newly-named supervisors of election met Wednesday and organized by electing John C. Davis, president; W. W. Baldwin, secretary; John D. Urie, attorney. The board consists of John C. Davis, Walter S. Trew, Republicans, and S. G. Caldwell, Democrat.

AT the regular meeting of the Mt. Vernon Literary Society last Saturday evening the following subject was debated: Resolved, that, a system of compulsory voting should be adopted in the United States. On the affirmative were Messrs. Landing and Jones. On the negative were Messrs. Allen and Keller. The judges decided in favor of the affirmative.

THE last meeting of the Centreville-Chestertown bridge club was held at the home of Mrs. Lewin W. Wickes, Chestertown, Wednesday afternoon. Those present were: Mesdames W. J. Price, Jr., J. Frank Harper, E. C. Corwin, Frank Hines, Lewin W. Wickes, George Brice, W. W. Beck and S. Scott Beck. Mrs. W. J. Price, Jr., of Centreville, won the hostess' prize, and the season prizes for the highest scores were won by Mrs. W. J. Price, Jr., of Centreville, and Mrs. S. Scott Beck, of Chestertown.

THE Court House in Chestertown is to be used next Monday evening, May 20, for the meeting in the interest of woman suffrage. The Just Government League, of Maryland from its Eastern Shore headquarters has been instrumental in working up this meeting. Dr. Barrett, of this town, will preside. The hour for introducing the speakers is set for 8 o'clock. Miss Leonora O'Reilly, of New York, and Mrs. Nannie Melvin will address the audience. Local suffragists are invited to speak their hearts openly on this occasion, and objectors are urged to state their objections. The public is cordially invited. No admission charged but an opportunity will be given for contributing towards the propaganda. It is expected that a local League will materialize in the very near future.

GRANGE NOTES.

The sun seems to shine on Tuesdays now, for a while he seemed to have a grudge against Still Pond Grange. Now we have real good meetings. We had lots of visitors Tuesday for the Domestic Science talk, and by their many questions showed they were much interested. Mrs. Gooding, of Betterton, was to have given us several solos, but something happened to the team we hired and she did not get there at all. Every one was very much disappointed, but it could not be helped.

On Monday evening we are looking forward with much pleasure to hearing Mrs. Bornschein again. She comes to us with an entirely new program, but we think she will give a few of her old ones, too. Last year it was so stormy not many of the girls were able to hear the "57 ways to catch a man." As this is leap year and the helps are always in demand, we will get her to sing it again. So come out girls and get a lesson or two. That alone would be worth the price of admission.

Personal and Social

Mrs. T. D. France, of Chestertown, met with a severe accident one day last week by falling off her front porch.

Mrs. George Rash has been in Baltimore the past week for special treatment. Her many friends in Kent hope she may return home improved.

Mr. A. Parks Rasin, cashier of the People's Bank, Chestertown, was raised to the sublime degree of a Master Mason on Wednesday evening by the Chester Lodge of Masons.

Mrs. Harry Vickers, nee Miss Stella Lambert, is visiting at the home of her mother on High street.

Mrs. Harvey Culp, two children, her mother, and Mr. Wm. S. Culp make up a congenial circle who will make their home on Washington avenue, in the new home built for Mrs. Culp.

Mrs. James Woodall, Jr., entertained the Bridge-Whist Club at her home in Georgetown, on last Friday afternoon. About seventeen members and guests were present. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. George L. Townsend, Mr. Wills Lusby and Mrs. J. C. Stites.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Colescot, daughter and son, of Camden, N. J., made the trip to Kent Saturday in their automobile and spent Saturday with the home folks at Mr. and Mrs. I. F. Walbert's.

Mr. Thos. DeCoursey Ruth is visiting friends in Kent and giving them a taste of his fine automobile!

Mrs. Mason Shehan, of Easton, is the guest of Mrs. Curtis E. Crane, Chestertown.

Vicar-General Lyons, of Wilmington, visited Father Heavey at Chestertown this week.

Mr. Frederic H. Russell is entertaining his brother from Newark, N. J.

Mrs. Wm. A. Burk has been quite a sufferer for a month with rheumatism.

Mrs. Nesbit Trenchard and son, of Baltimore, spent several days with her parents this week on Queen street.

Mr. Raymond Moody is progressing finely after an operation for appendicitis in Baltimore.

Mr. Clinton Cook, who is well-known in Kent, is now at the Carrollton Hotel, Baltimore, as clerk. Mr. Wrightson, of Quaker Neck wharf, is the polite and affable clerk at Rennert hotel.

Miss Ethel Porter, of near Tolchester, has returned home from her trip visiting Queen Anne's and Talbot county relatives. She says she enjoyed this trip very much and looks fine.

Mr. G. Hines Thomas and son, Emory, of Berlin, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Brice one night last week.

Mrs. H. S. Rayner, of Baltimore, has been the guest of her mother, Mrs. Wm. J. Vannort, during the week.

Mrs. Mary Smith fell in the yard last week and was quite painfully bruised. She is able to be about, we are glad to state.

Mr. George B. Twilley left town on Thursday afternoon for Princess Anne, where he will make his future home with his sister, Mrs. Ball.

Mrs. Kent Lambert and two children left Wednesday for New York from whence they expect to sail on Saturday to join Mr. Lambert in Panama.

Postal Agent Fred. Hirons has rented the Eliason house on Spring avenue heretofore tenanted by the Misses Wilkins, who will make their home in Philadelphia.

Mr. Dale Adkins, of Salisbury, visited friends in town Sunday.

Mr. Newell Graham, assistant manager of telephone company at Salisbury, spent Sunday with his parents in Chestertown.

Prof. Roland Watts is making good in Baltimore as assistant superintendent of schools.

Mrs. Marion deK. Smith and daughter, Miss Anne, returned Saturday from a protracted visit to her son in Bedford, Pa.

Mr. C. H. Jefferson, attending the M. E. General Conference at Minneapolis, Minn., writes as follows:

"Surely this is a great body of bright, intelligent men, doing much in the way of corrections and electing bishops for directing the affairs of the church. There is a great spirit of love manifest here for other denominations. There was one of the leading men of the Southern church here and gave a fine talk in the spirit of union. This is a fine city with fine streets. Plenty of automobiles in full force."

Prof. Samuel Rogers, a former vice-president of Washington College, of Bridgeport, Conn., who was born the same year as Fanny Crosby, expected some lines from his distinguished contemporary, but was disappointed because she forgot them until reminded of her promise. Here are the lines she sent:

Dear Bro. Rogers, though unkind
To let your birthday slip my mind,
Forgive my unintended wrong
And read the poem promised long.
I ask that for [illegible] early dew
May crown your [illegible] years and two;
That mem'ries flowers [illegible] friendship's light
May keep your future always [illegible]
That peace may like a river flow
Through days that come and days that go;
And best of all, that you, with me,
May reach one hundred years and three.

Republican Control Board.—The State Board of Education met Thursday at the office of Governor Goldsborough in Baltimore and the two new members were in attendance and took part in the proceedings. These two members are William T. Warburton, of Cecil, and Rev. Dr. John O. Spencer, of Baltimore city. The Senate refused to act on these appointments, because the appointees were Republicans. Later it was found that the names did not have to be sent to the Senate, and this view was acquiesced in by the holdover members of the Board. So there was no dispute over the question Thursday. The majority of the Board is now Republican.

Lankford Re-Elected.—At a meeting of the directors of the House of Correction at the institution last Thursday, W. E. Lankford was re-elected superintendent for two years. Thomas Purnell was elected treasurer, succeeding Senator Wells, of Prince Georges county, whose term expired and who was not re-appointed by Governor Goldsborough. Colonel Jones was re-elected secretary. Democrats will retain control of the board of directors for two years. In 1914 Governor Goldsborough will have the power to appoint three directors to succeed George E. Nicholson, Thomas M. Purnell and Harvey H. Mackey. The retiring directors are Charles A. Wells, Henry A. Osborn and Richard H. Collins. Mr. Charles McWhorter, of Chestertown, who has made an efficient guard, was retained to the satisfaction of his many friends.
