II A 25

Dr James Hall
Baltimore

Dear Sir

Your valued favor of 25th inst is at hand, contents noted. — On the 18th of Feby 1862 we forwarded to Messrs W. Rhoads & Son for acceptance & collection, two Drafts on R. Michle Esq. for $50 + 41.66/100. Messrs Rhoads & Son wrote us that they had presented the Drafts to Mr Michle, but he declined accepting — and that they had called on you as agent of the Col Society, and you would pay them when the Society had funds. On the 24th inst we forwarded Messrs Rhoads & Son another Draft on R. Michle Esq for $50, and we presume that is the occasion of his last call on you. We have no intention of giving you unnecessary trouble, nor do we think the Messrs Rhoads had. We are not in any particular hurry for the money, but we wish to know that the Drafts will be paid at some time, our Capt took them on the Coast just the same as Cash, on faith of them being duly honored on being presented for
