ANNOUNCEMENT!

WE are now ready with our Spring lines and extend all an invitation to come and inspect the various departments.

We're proud of our selections and its pride that makes a fellow want to wear good clothes and its pride that makes us very fussy about the class of clothes we sell.

"Moody & Lusby Clothes" are clothes to be proud of.

We're proud of them and we know you'll be if you wear them. If you take pride in your looks you'll do your purchasing at a shop where pride of quality is a basic principle; one of the most important features upon which our business has been built.

We can fit— BIG MEN LITTLE MEN

We can fit— BIG BOYS LITTLE BOYS and the prices are our usual LOW PRICES, and Merchandise JUST A LITTLE BETTER than the average for such values.

Come inspect the lines, compare qualities and we are willing to abide by the verdict.

LOCAL NOTES

CHESTERTOWN Chautauqua June 10-17.

THE Boone houses near the mill have been sold by J. W. Russell, broker, to Dr. Howard Fowler.

THE prizes in the fountain pen contest inaugurated by Mr. J. S. Kreeger, jeweler, Chestertown, will be awarded to-day.

THE Chestertown Public Library during the summer months will be open on Tuesdays and Saturdays from 10 to 1 o'clock.

ON Monday Messrs. Skirven & Startt, stock dealers, shipped 300 lambs from Chestertown. Wool is now bringing 28 cents per pound.

THE new time-table of the railroad changes only the Sunday schedule. The train leaves Sunday afternoon at 4.14 and arrives at 7.07 P. M.

A. L. SPARKS' big store will welcome all visitors to the Chautauqua next week. He invites the ladies to make his place their headquarters.

ANOTHER matinee will be held at Old Worton on Saturday, June 15th. The last matinee was a success and next Saturday's is expected to be even better.

THE steamer Old Point Comfort is making the Chester river route of the Md., Del., & Va. Ry., while the B. S. Ford is laid up for repairs and renovation.

IN another column the purchasers of the Denny Hoffecker goods say the whole stock must be sold by Saturday next, 15th. They note some rare bargains.

AN enjoyable meeting of the trustees of the almshouse was held Wednesday at the county home. A splendid dinner was served to the Board and a few invited guests.

THE first peas grown in Chestertown were gathered by Mr. D. B. McMenamin's faithful gardener, Jas. Rochester, on Wednesday. He also has tomatoes as large as walnuts.

THE Barnett brick-yard is turning out a first-class article under Mr. Vernon Barnett's direction. He has just finished building a new kiln to accommodate his growing trade.

THE Lee-Hurlock farm, near Melitota, has been rented to Mr. Chas. D. Wood, of Piney Neck, Mr. Lee having decided to remove to Fairlee. Mr. Will Toulson has rented Mr. C. C. Brown's Quaker Neck farm.

THE latest thing in town is a rug and carpet sweeping machine operated by James P. Parrott. He has been busy at various homes the past month cleaning carpets and rugs with his vacuum cleaner and does good work.

THE KENT NEWS editors are giving away two single admission tickets with every season ticket in addition to the low price of $1.98 mentioned several weeks ago charged for the 31 events. Phone or write this office.

A COMMODIOUS porch is being added to the home of Dr. Frank B. Hines, on Queen street, by Contractor Harry Cannan. Duyer Bros. are improving the France brick house on High street; it will be made into a double dwelling.

J. G. ROLAND, the former clerk to the Board of Supervisors, started some weeks ago on a visit to his brothers in Florida and reached there in safety. He met with pickpockets, however, on the way down, who robbed him of about $35!

THE Chestertown Laundry, under the management of Mr. Heller, has enlarged its working force, installed an up-to-date drier and is now doing a big business. The past week Mr. Heller received a big consignment from Tolchester and Betterton.

THE motor delivery wagon used by Mr. John N. Bennett in his milk business, took fire from an over-heated exhaust pipe one day last week, and the driver, Mr. Ralph Shallcross, was compelled to use about 2 gallons of milk to extinguish the flames.

A WEDDING in high colored society took place at Janes M. E. Church Wednesday night, the parties interested being Marshall Jones and Hattie Marshall, teacher of the school in town. Julia Chambers played the organ and the ushers wore high hats.

A TALL telephone pole standing in front of W. T. Bramble's store on High street broke Monday night under the weight and strain of numerous wires and cables. A new pole was put in at once by the skilled workmen. They are certainly a "wiry" crowd of boys.

IT is now Treasurer C. S. Hurlock and Deputy Ollie Estes. Mr. Tarbutton and his deputy, Mr. Conlyn Noland, retired from office Tuesday. Mr Noland, who has made a most efficient and courteous official, will spend the summer at Tolchester and there decide as to plans for the Fall.

THE home of John Gillian, colored, on Calvert street was slightly damaged by lightning Thursday afternoon. Trees were robbed of limbs by the wind, but no serious damage has been reported. Reuben F. Cole, near Fairlee, had a fine horse killed by lightning: insured in Jos. N. Wheatley's agency.

SHERIFF MCKEE arrested several negroes this week charged with disorderly conduct in Big Woods, near Chesterville. Travelers report a hilarious time among the negroes there on Decoration day. They surrounded a big blanket along the road side and there played crap and shot pistols to their heart's content.

Mr Joseph Downey will build a double dwelling on Cross street, Rock Hall.

THE State Roads Commission will visit Church Hill Tuesday at 8 A. M. with a view of determining whether to continue the State road through the town. It is thought the residents there by united action will be successful.

THE Automobile Commission visited Chestertown and the State road near Chester bridge Thursday and ordered a danger sign post placed at corner of Millington and State road. He will view other sharp turns later and place these danger signs wherever needed.

The double team owned by Mr. Aug. Money, of near Fairlee, took fright Wednesday at Hubbard's fertilizer factory and ran away. They came through Chestertown at a rapid pace and were halted in front of the NEWS office by Fred Russell. The tongue of the dearborn was broken and one of the horses cut his hind leg. No other damage.

GEORGE ERSKINE, a well-known character about town, securely wrapped a dollar note in a piece of paper some days ago and stuffed it in his pants pocket. Having occasion to light his pipe one day this week he thoughtlessly lighted the piece of paper which held the dollar bill and had burned the note half in two before he detected his mistake!

AT the regular meeting of the Mt Vernon Literary Society last Saturday evening the following subject was debated: "Resolved, that, Ty Cobb was justified in jumping into the bleachers at New York and striking a spectator in the New York-Detroit baseball game." On the affirmative were Messrs. Wheatley and Bowen, E. F. On the negative were Messrs. Collins and Boswell. The judges decided in favor of the affirmative.

THE automobile of Mr. Wilbur Hurlock in which Mr. Josiah Massey and a colored man were riding collided with another car driven by a Mr. Taylor, of Elkton, containing three drummers, on the State road near Chester bridge Tuesday afternoon. Both machines were damaged but the Elkton car got the worst of it. No one was hurt. The accident took place at a dangerous crossing where it is impossible to see approaching teams until right upon them.

THE appearance of Washington Ave. has been greatly improved by the removal of a few fences, etc. Mr. Charles S. Smith is building an enlarged porch after removing his fences. Mr. W. F. Jarrell is putting in a fine concrete walk. Mrs. Harvey Culp is having her front yard graded and fences near her removed. Mr. Clifton Jarrell's extensive grounds have been graded and the properties of Messrs. D. B. McMenamin and H. W. Vickers, Jr., Esq., put in fine shape.

Strange Man Hired Team in Chestertown and Came to Chester.

Chester News, June 4, 1912.

Sheriff William H. McKee, of Kent county, Maryland, and R. J. McWhorter, of Chestertown, same county, arrived in this city yesterday afternoon, the former to secure custody of John Edwards, the alleged horse thief captured by the local authorities Monday night, and the latter to take charge of his team, which the accused had hired on the day previous, ostensibly to drive to Millington, but a few miles from Chestertown, and which he drove to this city instead.

Edwards was arraigned at the City Hall yesterday morning, and after questioning him the magistrate learned that he had hired the team in Chestertown, and held him to await the action of the authorities there. Sheriff McKee was communicated with by telephone, and accompanied by the liveryman he set out at once for Chester.

Edwards arrived at Chestertown from Baltimore Sunday evening. On Monday about 8 o'clock he went to McWhorter's livery stable and requested a team to drive to Millington, a small town, fourteen miles distant, where he said he had some collecting to do for a cream separator concern, by whom he claimed to be employed. He stated that he might not return until the next morning, and when the team was not in that night the liveryman was not worried, as he thought the man was all right. He was very much surprised when the word reached Chestertown yesterday that his team was in Chester, Pa., a distance of fully seventy miles from where it had been hired.

Sheriff McKee will take his prisoner to the Kent county capital this morning, over the Pennsylvania Railroad, while Mr. McWhorter will probably leave some time to-day with his team for the long drive homeward.

BETTERTON NOTES

Mrs. Morse, of Baltimore, spent a few days with her sons, Messrs. Thomas Wilmer.

Mrs. Mattie Tull is spending the week in Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

Miss Viola Hickman visited Baltimore last week.

Mr. Robert Young, of Baltimore, is in town getting the Ferncliffe ready for the summer season.

Master Norman Brice is visiting relatives in Wilmington.

Children's Day service will be held in the church here Sunday evening at eight o'clock.

Everyone is busy getting ready for the summer season.
