SATURDAY, JUNE 15, 1912

IN case of death of any candidate under the present law the vacancy shall be filled by the State Central Committee of the respective parties.

"THE Ladies Aid will do the rest," and often does it all. The churches and communities would indeed be bad off but for the ladies' aid!

A RARE TREAT.

The Chautauqua held in Chestertown this week marked an important epoch in the history of this ancient and lovely town. Its promoters' welcome some months ago was anything but hearty. There were not more than two dozen people present at the inauguration of the movement but from this small beginning resulted the great events of the past week. The officials were greatly aided by the newspapers, merchants, banks and a committee comprising C. C. Jones, Kemp Bordley, Norman Jefferson, and A. L. Sparks, and L. B. Russell who donated the excellent site.

The Chautauqua has been favored with ideal weather and the events have been everything promised. The people have attended well for the first one, but we venture to say that the next one will be crowded with people from all parts of Kent. There is no reason why it should not be so. The talent has been of the best—refined, elevating and educational—and we believe the people who have attended will be happier, healthier and better fitted for the duties and joys of life than ever before.

The speakers have been inspiring and noble and give to all an incentive for higher and better things, thus fulfilling the object of the Chautauqua as operated by christian and public-spirited men. The men back of the movement have proven that their purpose is to elevate and tone up a community rather than entertain for gain.

Come again, Prof. Pearson.

THE COUNTY LEVY

The County Commissioners in special session last Monday declared the tax rate for 1912 to be $1.05 on the $100. This is 17 cents less than last year, which reduction will be hailed with gladness by all tax-payers. The State tax is 23½ cents, making a total of $1 28½. The reduction in the county tax rate is mainly a result of the increased assessment. The assessment on real and personal property last year was $8,434,954, while the new basis is $9,964,385, a difference of $1,529,431, which difference yields $16,069.01.

A great many of the taxpayers will be surprised to learn that about $80,000 of the money levied goes to items over which the commissioners have but little control, and are bound to levy the amount necessary to meet the requirements of each case.

The clerk to the commissioners, Mr. Samuel Hicks, has been enabled to place in our hands the completed levy for publication, which levy appears in this issue. The cash levy in 1910 was $80,296 83, and in 1911 it was $82,467 23, and this year it is $86,283.98, an increase of about $4,000. It is the purpose of the Board to increase this levy gradually until the county is on a cash basis. These cash items, as provided for, are as follows:

THE Chestertown Firemen captured the office of treasurer at the annual meeting in Hagerstown; Mr. William B. Usilton, Jr., being re-elected without opposition.

The Democratic Convention meets in Baltimore June 25th. Members of the Maryland delegation are being besieged by their friends in Congress and their constituents at home for seats in the Baltimore convention. The assumption that a Senator or a Congressman from Maryland has all the tickets he may want for friends has proved embarrassing to the Marylanders. The truth is that neither Senators nor Congressmen have been allotted tickets for the convention. They are not, therefore, in a position to accommodate their friends, yet their friends are still insisting upon being provided.

MR. CONSTABLE SERIOUSLY ILL

Ordered to Bed by His Physician for Six Weeks—Suffering With Blood Poisoning, Which Followed an Attack of Quinsy—Was Nominated to Succeed Judge James Alfred Pearce.

Albert Constable, Democratic candidate for chief judge in the Second circuit, is seriously ill at his home in Elkton. His friends are uneasy regarding the outcome of his illness, though hopeful that his youth and strength will be winning factors in the struggle.

Mr. Constable is suffering from blood-poisoning, or Bright's disease, which followed an attack of quinsy. The poison has permeated his whole system. He went to Baltimore last week and consulted a specialist, by whom he was informed that he was a very sick man. He was ordered to his bed and to remain there for at least six weeks. His condition was reported as having improved on Sunday, but his friends have not ceased to worry about him.

At the May primaries Mr. Constable was nominated by the Democrats for chief judge of the circuit, to succeed Judge James Alfred Pearce, whose term is nearing expiration because of the age limitation. His only opponent in the primaries was Associate Judge Adkins, of Talbot county. The Republicans have made no nomination against him and will make none.

Mr. Constable is a grandson of Judge Albert Constable, of Baltimore county, and of Colonel Groome, who was the unsuccessful Democratic candidate for Governor in 1859, being defeated by the late Hollyday Hicks. His father was the late Albert Constable, for many years leader of the Cecil county bar, and who was murdered several years ago by a man named Simpers. Simpers was subsequently tried, convicted and hanged. Mr. Constable is a graduate of Princeton, and has served as State's Attorney for Cecil county.

JUDGE PEARCE IN OIL.

Portrait of Jurist to Be Presented Upon His Retirement.

The members of the several bars in this judicial circuit have arranged to present Chief Judge James Alfred Pearce a handsome oil portrait of himself upon his retirement from the bench next fall. The presentation will probably take place in Chestertown, although that has not been definitely settled. Later, it is expected that the portrait will be hung in the Court of Appeals at Annapolis. The painting is to be done by Waldemar F. Dieterich, of Baltimore, and is now in the art parlors of Ferris C. Pitt, of that city.

Judge Pearce reached the age limit of 70 two years ago, but his time was extended by special act of the legislature. Judge Pearce is one of the most popular and able judges that ever sat upon the bench in this judicial circuit, and but for his age would in all probability have been nominated and re-elected without opposition.

Imported Percheron Stallion,

"RETARD."

(68419) 42705.

Black, star, left hind foot white; foaled February 28th, 1906; bred by M. Torges, Department of Orne. Sired by Rostere(63159); dam Leimande (46487) she by Bon Controle (42729), second dam Paulette (41858), she by Diogene (22663); third dam Paule (2407), and she by Tanora (725).

Retard was approved by the French Government to stand for public service in France. He is a typical draft horse of the highest quality and possesses in an extraordinary degree the wonderful activity and high finish which has made the Percheron the most famous of all draft breeds throughout the world. His breeding like his individual merit is the best that can be found in France. His immediate ancestors on both sire's and dam's sides being the most noted prize winners and breeders in that country. Retard is as sure a breeder as lives. His mares and colts show he is the best type Percheron this country has in it. I am going to raise a stable of horses this season and will sell him at half his value as a breeder. Never been beaten in the show ring. Neither have his colts. Firsts every time.

He and his colts show he is the best type Percheron in this country. Yearlings weighing over 900 lbs. with finish and quality.

"Responsibility"

"Johnny," said his teacher, "can you give us a sentence illustrating the meaning of the word 'responsibility'?"

Johnny looked thoughtful, then grinned sheepishly and said, "When one of your suspender buttons comes off, it puts a great responsibility on the other button."

That was Johnny's definition of the word—yours you know ours means being responsible to our patrons.

When you want a diamond, a piece of silver, an article in gold or a real cut glass ornament, you naturally want to feel that where you get it and the party you buy from are responsible.

That you can depend upon here. Responsibility is our watchword.

While attending the Chautauqua next week drop in and see our line of WEDDING AND GRADUATING PRESENTS.

All interested in the Fountain Pen Contest come in today (SATURDAY).
