ANNOUNCEMENT!

WE are now ready with our Spring lines and extend all an invitation to come and inspect the various departments.

We're proud of our selections and its pride that makes a fellow want to wear good clothes and its pride that makes us very fussy about the class of clothes we sell.

"Moody & Lusby Clothes" are clothes to be proud of.

We're proud of them and we know you'll be if you wear them. If you take pride in your looks you'll do your purchasing at a shop where pride of quality is a basic principle; one of the most important features upon which our business has been built.

We can fit— BIG MEN, LITTLE MEN

We can fit— BIG BOYS, LITTLE BOYS and the prices are our usual LOW PRICES, and Merchandise JUST A LITTLE BETTER than the average for such values.

Come inspect the lines, compare qualities and we are willing to abide by the verdict.

LOCAL NOTES

A HONEYSUCKLE and rose party was given for the little people of Lynch at Walnut Cottage, Saturday, June 8.

THE latest automobilist is Mr. J. G. Westcott. He has purchased a 4-passenger Buick of Graham & Clements.

THE Civic Improvement Association requests the saving of all newspapers for two weeks. They will see that they are collected.

THE members of St. Paul Union, W. C. T. U., of Baltimore, spent Wednesday at the home of Mrs. A. A. Reinhart, near Fairlee.

THE George Smith farm in Queen Annes, near Chester bridge, has been sold at private sale by Mr. Chas. Baxter to Mr. Clothier, of Virginia. It is said the price was $14,000.

THE Pearce-Chapman farm has been rented to Mr. Wm. Kendall, tenant on Mrs. Harper's farm, near Still Pond. Mr. Legg will remove to his new purchase on Flatlands.

THE examinations for certificates to teach in the public schools of Kent county will be held on July 9, 10 and 11 for white schools and June 17 and 18 for colored schools.

THE will of the late John F. Howard leaves all his property to his wife for life. His grand-daughter gets the controlling interest in shop on Court street and the dwelling on Cannon street. H. H. Barroll, Esq., is named as executor.

A THIEF entered the tailoring establishment of Mr. H. Kaplan, under the Voshell House, Sunday night and stole three suits of clothes, belonging to Mr. Edward Loud, Dr. Thos. Jones, and G. E. Noland. This is the second robbery here.

IN Milton, Del., a local dressmaker broke the record last week when she made six silk dresses, three broadcloth skirts and two fancy waists besides doing her housework for a family of four, tilling the garden, and feeding pigs and chickens.

A DIVORCE has been granted Mr. William E. Temple, formerly of Chestertown, now at Hotel Dixon, Cambridge, from his wife Sarah E. Temple, now living in Philadelphia. Mr. Edward Anderson, of Ridgely, was named as correspondent.

IN the Chautauqua circuit established with Swarthmore College at the lead are the following dates: June 10-15, Chestertown, Md.; June 11-16, Georgetown; June 12-17, Laurel; June 13-18, Dover; June 14-19, Elkton, Md. In the Fall the towns of Easton, Salisbury, Pocomoke City, Westminster and Bel Air will be in the circuit.

THE Chester river bridge will be formally accepted by the State Road Commission as soon as the Boards of County Commissioners as a joint board officially turns the same over to them. In the meantime it is thought that the present efficient keeper will be retained upon the request of Mrs. Wm. J. Vannort and other influential ladies.

IN the fountain pen contest held by Mr. S. G. Kreeger, jeweler, the following were prize winners: Class A—1st, Miss Blanche M. Grantlin, Kennedyville; 2nd, Miss Mary F. Stoops, Chestertown R. D. 3; 3rd, Miss Mamie Porter, Still Pond. Class B—1st, Carroll E. Edwards, Millington; 2nd, Miss Carmeta Russell, Chestertown; 3rd, Rev. O. H. Connelly, Chestertown.

J. W. CROUCH, the affable teller in the Chestertown Bank of Maryland, had a bath a few days ago and a scare as well which was not looked for. He was stepping from the launch of Cashier Harris to a smaller boat when he accidentally fell into water about up to his forehead. After considerable splashing he was pulled out by Mr. Harris! The surprising part of this accident is the fact that Mr. Crouch although an expert canoe sailor and having lived all his life on the water cannot swim! He says he has never had but one other "dip" but at these times feels the great need of knowing how to swim!

JAMES W. CHAPMAN, JR., representing the Tolchester Beach Improvement Company, has sent to Congressman Linthicum a vigorous protes against applying the stringent new marine legislation, growing out of the Titanic disaster, to excursion steamers and to steamers operating in rivers and streams with the shore near by. Mr. Chapman pointed out that to compel excursion steamers to carry enough life-boats and life rafts to handle all the excursionists an almost reconstruction of the vessels would be necessary and the cost of the excursions would go so high as to almost prohibit them. He mentioned the excursions of the Louise to Tolchester Beach. He said the steamer carries 2,000 excursionists and it is almost impossible to fit her out with life rafts for that number. Mr. Linthicum, in reply to Mr. Chapman, said he does not favor such stringent marine laws as will ruin these popular priced excursions.

THE Ladies Aid of Worton M. E. Church met at the home of Mrs. B. F. Rash on June 6. On account of the storm the attendance was small. The Aid is in a very flourishing condition. They are now planning to put new benches in the Union in place of the chairs which were never comfortable. They will give an entertainment at Mr. George Williams' on Saturday evening June 15. Every man who believes a "Woman Can't Keep a Secret,"—come see for yourself. Many other amusing features. Everybody come help us. Admission 15c. Cream and cake for sale.

Another Remarkable Calf.—Last year the NEWS noted a cow that was sold by Mr. Wm. Toulson to Mr. Willard Dodson that had a remarkable calf. Ten days ago this same cow gave birth to a calf that weighed 105 pounds, and at one week old weighed 125 pounds. It is increasing at rate of 8 pounds a day.

Encamping at Tolchester.—The St. John's cadets from Annapolis are encamped at Tolchester this week. They are under the command of Lieut. R. Earle Fisher, U. S. A. Lieut. Fisher is a graduate of Washington College of the class of 1892 and many of his school mates and friends welcomed him in Chestertown on Monday. He gave a very pleasant dance at Tolchester on Tuesday evening in honor of his Kent friends with music furnished by the St. John's cadet band.

Topping's Mill Sold.— Mr. Medford Brooks, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. M. Brooks, of Chestertown, has entered into an agreement for the purchase of the grist mill at Chestertown owned by Mrs. T. H. Topping. This is one of the finest mill properties in the county and has a large patronage. Mr. Brooks is fully capable of managing the business and we bespeak for him a hearty reception by the trade and community. The price is said to be around $14,000. Mrs. Topping will retain the comfortable home. Messrs. Griffith Clift and John Nickerson, expert millers, will remain at the mill.

Harvest.—Wheat is about ready for cutting and binders will probably be busy during the next ten days throughout the county. While some damage has been done in some sections of the county by the fly, the crop in general will be a good one. Recent rains helped the grain to head out well. Wheat was quoted the latter part of last week at $1.08 for July or August, and indications are that locally the first price will be around $1 per bushel. The price for 1912 will be higher than in any recent year by several points, though $1.40 is on record for this county several years ago. Old wheat is quoted now around $1.25 a bushel.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

Mr. John F. Howard, a life-long friend of the NEWS editors, and a highly respected citizen, died at his home on High street, Chestertown, Friday afternoon, after a long illness in his 74th year. The deceased was reared in the home of the late John N. Usilton and after trying the water as a sailor learned the trade of harness making and carriage trimmer. He was a faithful workman and by economy saved enough to buy the home he occupied at the time of his death, together with some other property. He married Miss Emma Lusby who died many years ago, being followed by her two sons, Wm. and Charles. After several years Mr. Howard married again and leaves his widow, Mrs. Viola Howard, a faithful, devoted and accomplished wife and companion. He also leaves a grand-daughter, Miss Frances Howard. The deceased was a Union soldier and also a member of the Reed Rifles a local company of high repute under Major Perkins' command.

He was a faithful member of Christ M. P. Church where for many years he taught in the Sunday school. Those who knew him best loved him most and his bright smile will help us in our journey through life.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon conducted by the Rev. W. R. Graham; interment in Chester cemetery. Special music was rendered by Mrs. J. H. Thompson, Miss Clara Usilton, Dr. H. L. Dodd and Fred. G. Usilton. The active pall bearers were: Samuel O. Crouch, Jefferson D. Bacchus, Dr. H. L. Dodd, Charles S. Smith, Fred. G. Usilton and John Gale Usilton. The honorary bearers were Col. W. J. Vannort, Hope H. Barroll, James W. Lambert, George S. Biddle, James T. Dixon, John H. Greenwood, Henry Stewart, W. H. Robertson, Edgar P. Beck and A. S. Crawford. Undertaker, Chas. L. Dodd.

Mr. Abraham Alexander, one of Kent county's most prominent and successful merchants, died at his home in Rock Hall Saturday night at 6.30 o'clock. He had been ill for 7 weeks and his death was due to a complication of diseases. He was born in Germany 72 years ago and came to this country 50 years ago, settling in Rock Hall, where he opened a general merchandise store. His remains were taken to Baltimore Sunday morning and were taken to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Mitchell Kramer, 1737 W. North avenue, from whose home the funeral took place Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Henry W. Schneebergar, rabbi of McCullough Street Temple, conducted the services. Burial was in Baltimore Hebrew cemetery. Besides Mrs. Kramer he is survived by his widow, Mrs. Annie Alexander and one son, Max Alexander.

Alexander Hickman died suddenly at his home at Betterton on Wednesday at 3 o'clock of heart failure, aged 72 years. He was a prominent farmer of the Third district until his retirement some years ago and tenanted the E. W. Janvier farm for a number of years. He leaves five sons and two daughters, Lemuel and James, of Betterton, John and Walter, of Wilmington, and William, of Philadelphia, Mrs. Samuel Brice, of Betterton, and Mrs. Strong, of Wilmington, Del. Funeral services will take place from his late home at Betterton, today, (Saturday afternoon) at 2 o'clock, Rev. F. X. Moore officiating, and interment will be in the cemetery at Still Pond. Undertaker, William H. Krusen.

WEDDING BELLS

Rev. and Mrs. Albert Osborn announce the marriage of their daughter, Rose Etta, to Mr. James Bordley Sappington, Sunday, June 9th, 1913, at Washington Grove, Washington, D. C. Mr. Sappington is the youngest son of Mrs. J. B. Sappington, of Chestertown, and a fine young man. His bride sang in Christ M. P. Church last summer at one of the services and is popular and attractive.
