Women as Well as Men are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers who found Swamp-Root to be just the remedy needed. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

SHOT DURING A GAME OF POKER

Robert Whaley Is At Point of Death —Winchester Smith Jailed—Both Men Prominent Citizens of Church Hill—Affray Occurred Early Sunday Morning—Woman Looking For Husband Said To Have Witnessed Whole Affair.

Centreville, Md., June 9.—As the result of a drunken brawl, following a disagreement in what was supposed to have been a poker game, at Church Hill, a town nine miles north of Centreville, Queen Annes county, Robert Whaley, a young man, is lying at the point of death in Emergency Hospital, Easton, with a bullet in his left lung, and Winchester Smith, a carpenter and builder, is in Centreville jail accused of the shooting. Two other prominent citizens of Church Hill are held in jail here as witnesses, and more arrests may follow.

The shooting occured at 2 o'clock this morning, and so far the authorities have not been able get down to the real gist of the affair. Smith is a son of E. S. Smith, a large building contractor, of Queen Annes Station. Another report is to the effect that he was not the man who did the shooting at all, but that a revolver with an empty chamber was found in the house of a second party connected with the shooting, and that the party was known to have had the revolver in his pocket at the time. The name is being withheld by the officers. Smith states that he was walking down Walnut street, in Church Hill, when he was attacked by three men. One of them threw a brick which struck him in the head. Further than this he is unable to testify. On the left side of his head is a long gash, which Dr. W. G. Coppage, a Church Hill physician, sewed up this morning. The wound was evidently inflicted with a brick or some jagged instrument.

Another Side of the Story.

The other side of the story is to the effect that several men were playing poker in a house on Walnut street, and that in the game of cards Smith accused Whaley of cheating. Whaley resented the accusation and a free-for-all fight followed. It was then proposed that the two combatants go outside and finish the fight. One of the crowd proposed if either had weapons that they give them up and fight with their fists. At that time, it is claimed both had revolvers, and each turned his weapon over to a third party to hold during the fight. Whaley is said to have knocked Smith down, and Whaley's friends declare that Smith ran to the man who was holding the weapons, and, snatching one of the revolvers from his pocket placed the pistol to Whaley's breast and fired.

By that time several nearby residents were aroused and with the aid of those in the crowd, Whaley was carried to the home of Dr. Norman S. Dudley, who recognized Whaley's serious condition and placing him in an automobile, hurried him to the Emergency Hospital at Easton. There he was submitted to a thorough examination by the hospital physicians, and late today little hope was entertained for his recovery, although he was reported holdidg his own and showing a slight inclination toward improvement.

This afternoon a number of Smith's friends, inc uding his father, called at Centreville Jail, and they have employed J. H Legg, of the Centreville bar, as counsel. Smith's friends declare that they are ready to prove that Whaley has been nagging Smith for several weeks and accused him of crookedness at cards. It is alleged by Smith's friends that Whaley stated at Tolchester two weeks ago that if he caught him at it again "he had better have his business fixed."

Woman Hunting For Husband

The citizens of Church Hill and Centreville were surprised this afternoon when it became generally known that the officers had found a woman, the wife of one of the men who are supposed to have been participating in a game of cards, who had seen the entire fight and held the key to the affair. She was looking for her husband, whom she expected home much earlier in the evening, and, it is said, saw the entire brawl. She will be produced at the proper time, and has stated that she will explain. Those who have talked with her state that she exonerates Smith from all blame, if he was the one who did the shooting.

Whaley returned to Church Hill only a few weeks ago after spending a year in other countries traveling. He is connected with prominent Queen Anne's families, and was born and reared in this county. Smith, the accused man, bears an honest reputation, and his parents are fairly independent financially.

Smith and the witnesses will be held pending the outcome of Whaley's injuries. Sentiment is almost entirely on the side of Smith, and his friends are working to effect his speedy release.

KENNEDYVILLE NOTES.

Our public schools close this week for the summer vacation. The picnic of Morgnec school, Miss Anna Melvin, teacher, was largely attended Saturday afternoon in the adjoining beautiful grove, under the stately oaks of many years growth. Among the invited guests were Prof. and Mrs. Milton Melvin, Miss Boston, one of Kent's teachers Miss Ethel Solloway, a former teacher of the school above named, and Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Mullineaux A very liberal supply of cake and cream was served to the large number of pupils and visitors, and all present seemed to have a most delightful time. Miss Melvin is one of Kent county's most efficient teachers and keeps her school room in beautiful order.

Miss Emma Shafer is having a delightful visit with friends in Newark, N. J. Mrs. Shafer attended a few days ago the funeral services of a relative, Mrs. Burn, a sister of Rev. W. D. Litsinger, a most estimable woman, in Towson, Md.

The painters are giving the finishing touches to the new building of Mr. and Mrs. Haggerty which they expect to occupy next week.

Mr. Howard Clendaniel is placing in his creamery and mill a new boiler

Mr. Howard Baldwin, one of Harford's noble sons, is seen frequently in and around Chestertown and Kennedyville, getting his tomato factories in first-class order for the coming canning season. Mr. Baldwin is an expert manager and chauffeur of a touring car. If you want to prove it just take a ride with him.

Kennedyville M. P. Church services for Sunday, June 16: Sunday School at 9 30 a. m.; Sermon by the pastor at 10 30; Song service and brief sermon at 7 45 p. m. Everybody most heartily invited.
