Ashland, Ky. — "Four years ago I seemed to have everything the matter with me. I had female and kidney trouble and was so bad off I could hardly rest day or night. I doctored with all the best doctors in town and took many kinds of medicine but nothing did any good until I tried your wonderful remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. ## Ways In Which Girls Have Earned Their College Expenses.

[WRITTEN FOR THE NEWS.]

"How can I get the money to enable me to go to college?" This question is being asked now by a great many girls who are anxious to go to college, but whose families cannot afford to pay the expenses of a college course for them. Inasmuch as a great many girls have paid their own way through college, it has been proven fully possible, and every girl whose going to college depends on her getting some extra money, should know how other girls have done it.

The following are some of the ways in which students at Goucher College have paid their expenses. They are given merely as examples of what an earnest, industrious student can do in any college. It should perhaps be remarked in the beginning that only an exceptional student could make money enough to pay her board in addition to her other expenses, but any girl, if she lives at home or with friends in or near the city, can make enough to cover her tuition and all necessary incidental expenses.

Many girls have taken the advantage of the opportunity offered for work as playground directors during the summer. All of the playgrounds in Baltimore are open during July and August, and several of them from the first of May to the last of October. The salary is thirty dollars a month for directors, and twenty dollars a month for assistants.

Another very remunerative work is that of coaching private pupils, during the summer, for which the charges are from fifty cents to one dollar an hour. One student accepted the position of private tutor or governess for some small children and thereby greatly increased her fund of experience as well of money.

These are some of the ways in which the summer can be utilized for making money, but in the winter too, the student can add to her income. One way is by acting as emergency substitute in the public schools before and after Christmas, as the holidays are always longer than the public school holidays and the absence of many teachers at that time gives the college girl a good chance to substitute and thus earn a dollar for each day.

Then there are the night schools which are open three nights a week, from October to March, and in which the salary is two dollars a night, or an average of twenty-four dollars a month. It is also possible for any girl who stands well in her studies to be recommended by her teachers as a "coach" for college and high school pupils who are deficient in their work. Besides this, in nearly all colleges there are positions in which students are appointed to fill, such as assistants in the various departments or college postmistress, and preference is invarably given to the girl who is making her own way.

The things mentioned so far are such as the ordinary, every day girl can do successfully, yet there are other ways for girls to use their special gifts. Some can become college correspondents for newspapers. And one girl who writes unusually well has even paid all her expenses by writing articles for the magazines. But the smaller gifts are by no means to be despised, and sewing may bring in a neat sum, as hand work and fancy work can always be readily disposed of. A girl who likes that sort of work can solicit subscriptions for popular magazines, and in a college not in Baltimore, the position of college agent for one of the photographers in the city pays very well.

It is quite a varied list, is it not? But "When there's a will, there's a way," and different girls have found different ways to solve the money problem in college. Perhaps some who read this article will determine to go to college, and while there, will find new and still different ways, but in any case, "What girls have done, girls can do."

Silver Jubilee.—Ordained to the priesthood by Cardinal Gibbons in the Cathedral at Baltimore, Rev. Francis J. Connelly, pastor of St. Ann's Church in Wilmington, on Tuesday celebrated the silver anniversary of his ordination. A special celebration was arranged in the Parochial School Hall and handsomely printed programs were issued. Father Connelly was ordained June 11, 1887. His first assignment was as assistant to Mgr. Lyons, vicar-general, at St. Peter's Cathedral, Wilmington. In 1890 Father Connelly came to Chestertown, which mission included stations at Galena, Rock Hall and Still Pond. In 1893 Galena was made a separate mission, and here Father Connelly labored for two years. In 1895 he was transferred to Delaware. Many of his Maryland friends sent him telegrams and letters of congratulation.

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad but loving remembrance of JOHN THOMAS KENDALL, husband and father, who departed this life four years ago, June 10, 1908.
Gone but not forgotten.

I often sit and think of you
When I am all alone.
For memory is the only friend
That grief can call its own.
BY HIS WIFE.

You are not forgotten, father,
Nor will you ever be;
For as long as life and memory last
We will always think of thee.

We will pray for the soul of our father.
A right that cannot be taken away;
It is one of the beautiful gifts of our faith,
For prayers are the only flowers that never decay.
BY HIS CHILDREN.

In loving remembrance of my brother, EDWE. HARDING, who departed this life one year ago to day, June 10th, 1911.

When the silence of ages is waked by the harp strings above,
And the shores of the beautiful river
Are thronged with the forms that we love,
I shall stoop where the bright, sparling waters
Reflect all our past in a gleam,
And your face will smile in its beauty,
Like the hallowed returns of a dream.
BY HIS BROTHER.

It is not for us to question,
Nor to ask the reason why;
In His wisdom He's decreed it—
All men born of women die.
