What came very near being a serious accident and might have been fatal occurred last Tuesday afternoon when a party of ladies, namely, Mrs. John R. Poore, Mrs. Eldridge Wilson and Mrs. Mary Simmons went strawberrying down the railroad. On their return home about midway of the trustle bridge which expands the head of the Chester river, the ladies heard the train coming at a rapid speed. They were so frightened they could scarcely move; the train slowed up and they finally made their escape. Mrs. Wilson being so frightened that she almost had to be dragged off of the track by her companions.

Asbury M. E. Sunday School held its Children's Day service last Sunday evening. The audience was large and the program fine. Christ Meth Protestant Church was packed from pulpit to Sunday School room Sunday night with an interested audience to participate in and enjoy the exercises of Children's Day. The beautiful edifice never looked prettier. The decoration committee consisting of Mrs. S. R. Matthews, Mrs. W. I. Woodall, Misses Maud Duyer and Mamie Thompson did their work well while the flowers brought by the classes were tastily arranged in vases making a magnificent setting for the exercises. One of the main features of the evening was a symbolic exercise entitled "The Rainbow" and "Crown Your King" by 20 young ladies. Spanning the pulpit was a rainbow the artistic work of Dr. H. L. Dodd and Mr. Milton Baker, while from it hung a crown of gold which was completed by the young ladies adding the deftly made "rays."

The singing as usual was a pleasing feature being accompanied by the orchestra composed of Miss Clara B. Usilton, organist; L. B. Russell, Arthur Bacon, cornetists; Foster Cannon, trombone; Warren Hurlock, Kemp Bordley, violinists.

The collection amounted to over $64. The banner class was that taught by W. W. Hubbard their contribution being $13.50, Miss Clara Usilton's Class of young ladies being a close second with $13.00. The speaking by the children was specially fine and showed good training. The program follows:

ROCK HALL NOTES.

Mr. B. H. Coburn lost a valuable horse this week.

Mr. T. B. Durding has erected an up-to-date dairy on his farm.

Miss Mamie Ryan, is spending the week in Baltimore, as guest of her sister Mrs. Levey.

Messrs. Boylean and Wilkie, of the city, were also guests of the Misses Ryan on Sunday.

Mrs. E. T. Levey, of Baltimore, was a Sunday visitor to the home of her sisters, the Misses Ryan.

The Odd Fellows Lodge held memorial services at this weeks' meeting, in memory of the late Samuel Joiner.

A representative of the Anti-Saloon League will hold forth at the M. E. Church tomorrow (Sunnay) morning. Wonder if he is here to give Mayor Preston a whack?

District Superintendent Dr. Robert Watt conducted the Quarterly Conference at the M. E. Church here on Saturday evening, and preached the morning sermon Sunday. He was at his best.

Mr. A. Alexander succumbed to the ravages of disease on Saturday about 5.30 p. m. All the skill of physicians here and in the city, as well as the best of nursing, could not stay the onslaught. The remains were sent to Baltimore on Sunday morning via Tolchester for burial. In the demise of Mr. Alexander this community loses a most successful business man, a benefactor and splendid specimen of the gentleman and citizen. He was a familiar figure among us for about 50 years, and was highly esteemed by our residents, who mourn his departure, and extend their heartfelt sympathies to the bereaved family.

Blue & White Dress Linen

We are showing great values in all kinds of Dress Linens. They include the light weight, medium and coarse linens, all colors.

Our Blue and Plain White Linen, 48 inches wide, at 75c per yard, are great favorites with the well dressed women. 2¼ yards make a skirt, or 3½ yards make a whole dress. Ask to see these linens.

Under this head we again call your attention to our 15c Killarney Linen. It looks like linen the more it is washed. None genuine without "KILLARNEY" written on the selvage. We have the sale agency for Kent county for this popular grade. 15c yd.

"Special Sale" of Corsets

On Saturday, June 1st, we will put on sale our $1.50 SPECIAL CORSET at $1.00 each. The large W. B. Corset Company made us this Corset and you will know it in that our name appears on inside of Corset.

It has drawing strings at top, strong, wide garters, low bust and long skirt, and in every way it is a good up-to-date Corset. In order to get a price on this corset we had to buy 25 dozen or 300 pairs. Hence we have plenty to supply you. If it is inconvenient to visit the store, 'phone or write today from any part of the county, and we will save you a pair.
