SCHOOL NOTES.

Prof. Harry Primrose Porter is one of the applicants for Chestertown High School. He has just finished a special course at Columbia University, having taught up to last year at Bel Air. He is a Washington College graduate.

Prof. Blackiston Wroth contemplates taking up medicine, although having taught at Bel Air for several years and having had a fine offer from elsewhere. He has made a successful teacher and his friends predict greater success in the medicine field.

Miss Pearl Griffin has completed a successful year teaching at Straver's Business College but will likely take a new position next year which has not yet been made public.

Miss Araminta Brinsfield, who was graduated from the Maryland State Normal School last week, won first honors in a class of fifty-eight young ladies. This makes a very good record for Miss Brinsfield having led her class in 1910 when she was graduated from the Chestertown High School. She was a former pupil of Mrs. Milton Melvin.

Wedded.—Mr. Leslie F. Duyer and Miss Fredericka Fox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip M. Fox, of Havre de Grace, were married by the Rev. F. D. Reynolds, in the Grace Reformed Episcopal Church at that place, last Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Duyer, immediately after the ceremony, left for Philadelphia, where they will make their future home. The groom is well known in Chestertown as the sweet toned tenor of the White Rose Minstrels and a printer by trade.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Capt. and Mrs. W. G. Melvin, at Hampton Roads, Va., on Wednesday evening, 19th inst., when their niece, Miss Catharine Melvin Hoffman, became the bride of Mr. Henry Quimby Layman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Layman, formerly of this county. The ceremony was performed by Dr. W. G. Starr, of Trinity M. E. Church, South, Newport News.

The bride wore a white mousseline gown over white silk, with a diamond and pearl pin, the gift of the groom, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lillies of the valley. The attendants were Miss Florence M. Layman, sister of the groom, who wore white embroidered voile over pink messaline, and garried a bouquet of pink roses and Mr. Allan R. Hoffman, brother of the bride.

The ceremony was followed by a beautiful reception given by Captain and Mrs. Melvin in honor of the contracting parties and was largely attended by the numerous friends of the popular young couple. The parlors were beautifully and artistically decorated with palms and roses, while an appropriate and beautiful musical programme was rendered by Prof. Smith and wife of Newport News.

Mr. and Mrs. Layman left on a wedding trip south immediately after the reception. They will make their home in Wilmington, Del., Mr. L. being a mechanical engineer in the employ of The Pusey Jones Co., of that city.
